

TENNESSEE CHESS NEWS

Vol. 21, No. 3

June 1979

Tennessee Chess News is the official publication of Tennessee Chess Association, Inc. The publication is bi-monthly. TCA membership, including subscription, is $3 a year through 31 December 1978, $4 a year thereaften. Individual copy price $1.50.

TCN EDITOR: John D. Nichols, 825 W. Maple St., Johnson City, TN 37601

TCN POSTAL EDITOR: Stan Bimson, Rt. 2, Box 293, Hendersonville, TN 37075

TCA PRESIDENT: Peter P. Lahde, 2609 Sailboat Court, Nashville, TN 37217

TCA VICE PRESIDENT: Jack E. Smith, 815 Creekside No. 1, Memphis, TN 38117

TCA SECRETARY-TREASURER: Harry Sabine, PO Box 381, Crossville, TN 38555

TCA TMT CO-ORDINATOR: Arthur Hager, 1320 Elkwood St., Memphis, TN 38111

TCN is printed by Collier's Printing Co., 718 Riverside Ave., Kingsport, TN 37660

CUMBERLAND COUNTY - BLUEPRINT FOR SUCCESS

by Talbot W. Rogers

Cumberland County, with a population of only 26,000, has more TCA members than any area in the state, including Nashville and Memphis. The secret of this growth appears to be the strong school program at all age levels. In 1972 several local Jaycees discussed the possibility of forming a chess club in the bar of the Crossville Holiday Inn, and the Cumberland County Chess Club was born. The first Cumberland County Chess Championship tournament soon followed (won by Harry Sabine), and by 1973 the club was able to promote two unrated tournaments.

A year later the club held its first rated tournament with thirteen players, and players attended two other tournaments out of state. USCF affiliation came in 1975.

Harry Sabine and his law office became the hub of recordkeeping and distribution of chess news, and as the years passed the number of tournaments and players steadily increased. Harry's copying machine certainly deserves a share of the credit for the growth in Cumberland County.

Local tournaments began to be published in Chess Life & Review, and in 1977 the 1st Annual Fairfield Glade Tournament was held with 82 players, which swelled to 129 players last year!

The high school team was already an entity, though, as is true in most Tennessee countries, it was slow in growing and lacked the dynamic foundation that wellorganized elementary and junior high schools could provide.

The flash-point was probably reached when Steve Sabine, Harry's son, managed to convince Talbot Rogers, his sixth grade teacher, that a chess club at Cumberland Elementary was at least worth a try. Like many elementary teachers, Mr. Rogers doubted the ability of elementary students to play chess, but after Cumberland Elementary Chess Cub was formed, found that his students could often outplay experienced adults.

The Martin Junior High School Chess Club was formed shortly thereafter, coached by Lidell Agee. With the constant aid of Harry Sabine and other members of the Cumberland County CC, the two new clubs thrived. Entry in the TN

Scholastics Championship in Nashville was rewarded by Cumberland Elementary's winning the first place team trophy (by default: they were the only team present) as well as the first and second place individual trophies. Martin finished fourth of seven teams.

Later, when Cumberland Elementary's team picture appeared on the front page of both local newspapers, Harry Sabine termed it "...the one thing that did more to spur interest in scholastic chess than anything else." With this publicity, he was able to solicit funds from local merchants and organizations to send both the Martin and Cumberland Elementary teams to the nationals, held a few months later in Minneapolis and Atlanta. The value of newspaper pictures and stories has ever since been a priority of the Cumberland County Chess Club.

Other schools in the county were scouted for chess interest, their principals talked to about supporting a club, and supplied with chess sets whenever needed. Homestead Elementary School, coached by teacher John White, soon organized a strong chess team. Mr. White, meeting with different groups of students three afternoons a week, quickly won a place of respect for Homestead in the county's chess community.

In 1978 Cumberland County stormed the Tennessee Scholastics Championship in Nashville, with 40 entries out of a field of 124. The high school won the novice championship, with Pamela Campbell taking the first place novice individual trophy. In the junior high division, Martin took second place as a team, while Cumberland Elementary edged out Homestead (the only other elementary team) to win the first place trophy, as well as second and third place individual trophies.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, Harry and the county chess club had arranged for more tournaments. Local merchants, impressed with the performance of the county's teams, were providing more and more money for trophies, transportation, lettered shirts, and the like. Local papers became more generous with chess coverage, and Pam Campbell's victory in the novice section was published in Sports Illustrated [March 5, 1979]. She was given a trophy and other honors in a special high school assembly.

The Crossville Scholastics, held December 2-3, 1978, drew several teams from other states. The 1st Southern Elementary/Junior High Championships (March 31-April 1) drew participants from as far away as New York.

With the Nationals at hand again in 1979, clubs on all levels are presently raising funds from a variety of sources — basketball games, a "slave sale," a "chess carnival," school movies, and donations by local merchants and other interested parties. Three county teams have made firm plans to attend the Nationals in Minneapolis and Philadelphia. [See below—Ed.] The Cumberland County School Board has been very cooperative in granting paid leave to involved coaches and chaperones.

To further spur interest and performance, the Cumberland County CC has held two chess classes at night during the past six months. Both were filled to capacity, with a majority of the participants from the elementary school.

Another strategy has been to encourage beginners to become rated as soon as possible. Ratings of "0" or "1" are not uncommon, but frequent publication of rating sheets quickly rewards those who make upward progress.

Some unofficial goals for the future are: (1) to have a strong chess program in every school in the county; (2) to win the state open high school championship; and (3) to win a national championship at some level.

Cumberland County

5 Timothy Sexton

6 John Roberson

The 7th Annual Cumberland County Scholastics, sponsored by the Cumberland Thrift Corporation on April 21 at Martin Junior High School, had a record turnout of 49 students. Altogether, twenty-five trophies (top 5 HS, top 10 JHS, and top 10 Elementary) were awarded in the event, which was directed by John L. White and Harry D. Sabine.

In the 6-man round-robin high school section, Pamela Campbell scored 4.5 points to become the 1979 Cumberland County HS Champion. Donald Langford (3), James Jones (2.5), James Hancock (2), Keith Lowe (2) and Larry Bradley (1) finished in the order named.

The only perfect score of the tournament was earned by Terry Burdett, who captured the junior high championship with a 5-0 score. Johnny Camillieri edged Chuck Lovingood on tie-break to take first place trophy in the elementary division. Jay Sabine took home the third-grade-and-below trophy on tie-break with Jeff Smathers.

Cumberland Elementary scored 15 points to Homestead's 14.5 to win the elementary school team trophy. [Harry Sabine]

In the 4th National Elementary School Championship, held in Minneapolis, MN, on April 28-29, Cumberland Elementary finished 9th in a field of 25. Lincoln of MN took first place for the third year in a row, followed by Cove Creek of AZ, and Frederick Douglas of PA. The only other southern school in the tournament, Hebrew Academy (GA) finished in 16th place. Unofficial team and individual scores [reported by Harry Sabine] are as follows:

		Team S	Standings
1	Lincoln (MN)	26.0	14	Johamu (MN)	18.0
2	Cove Creek (AZ)	24.5		Noble (MN)	18.0
3	Frederick Douglas (PA)	22.5		Hebrew Academy (GA)	17.0
4	Meadow Lake (ML)	21.0		Hawthorne (MN)	17.0
5	Komarek (IL)	21.0		Cedar Manor (MN)	16.5
6	Poinsetta (CA)	20.5		Highland (MN)	16.0
	Roberts (WI)	20.5		Olson (MN)	16.0
	Pilgrim Lane (20.5)	20.5		Shonto Baerling (AZ)	15.0
9	Cumberland (TN)	19.5		Crestview (MN)	15.0
	Meadowbrook (MN)	19.0		Lakeview (MN)	15.0
11	Forest (MN)	18.5		North Branch (MN)	13.5
	Pratt (MN)	18.5		Silver Lake (MN)	13.0
13	Fair Meadows (IA)	18.5
		Individual	Standings	(TN)
1	Chuck Lovingood	5.0
	Johnny Camilleri	5.0		Michael Whisnant	4.0
	Trey Meadows	5.0		Perry Sarantopoulos	4.0
	Richard Jones	4.5		George Wallace	4.0
		4.0	10	Michael Mitchell	3 0

11 Jay Sabine

12 Daniel Tuttle

4.0

4.0

3.0

2.5

If you have been thinking of purchasing a micro-chess computer, you have probably been wondering which of the rapidly growing number of machines on the market represents a Good Buy, if not the Best Buy. This article represents a preliminary essay based upon actual play-testing and observation. It is consumer-oriented, written to help you to decide which machine, if any, to purchase. We shall, therefore, name names, specify models. Articles about unnamed models (see, for example, Roland Benoit, "Marathon with a Miniature," CL&R, May 1979, pp. 268-269) may amuse, but they are useless when you are on the point of writing a check for $200 to $300 for a toy.

How does one go about testing the relative strengths and/or weaknesses of micro-chess computers? One approach, of course, is to pit machine against machine. Let's see what happened when the editor matched his Chess Challenger X (about $200) against a friend's Chess Champion Mark I (about $100):

[1] Challenger-Champion: 1 d4 d5 2 c4 dc4 3 Qa4+ c6 4 Qc4 Nf6 5 Nd2 e6 6 Qd3 Bb4 7 a3 Qa5 8 Qg3 Bd2+ 9 Bd2 Qb6 10 Qg7 Qb2 11 Qh8+ Ng8 12 Qg8+ Kd7 13 Qf7+ Kd8 14 Bg5 mate.

[2] Challenger-Champion: 1 e4 e5 2 Nf3 Qf6 (Champion has an incurable addiction to this patzer move) 3 d4 Bb4+ (as a rule, neither machine can resist a check) 4 c3 Ba5 5 Bg5 Bc3+ (can a machine experience panic?) 6 Nc3 Qg6 7 de5 Qh5 (Her Majesty deserts the battlefield and will not be heard from again) 8 Nb5 b6 (what can one say?) 9 Nc7+ Kf8 10 Qd6+ (bravo! Challenger finds the mate in two in about five seconds...or does he?) Ne7 11 Bd7+ (he blows it!) Kg8 12 Qd5 (not bad at all: we assumed Challenger would not be able to resist 12 Na8) Bb7 13 Qb7 Nc6 14 Qa8+ Nd8 (at this point a human would re sign — or upset the board in a tantrum) 15 Qd8+ mate. (The final position boggles the imagination: Challenger has lost a solitary pawn, while Champion — who presumed to challenge Karpov to a match — has dropped five pieces and two pawns!)

In the illustrative games published above, both machines were set at the next-to-the-lowest level of play (Level 2). It is no coincidence that Challenger played White in both games. Challenger is easily programmed to play either color, but Champion's instruction manual is quite confusing. In subsequent games the machines were set to play at Levels 3 and 4. The games were quite amusing — and unprintable, being utterly without any socially redeeming value. The games seesawed back and forth interminably, with Challenger always obtaining a clearly superior, if not winning position after 45 or 50 moves. By this time the human observers have long since ceased to find even the most absurd moves amusing, and are drooping from fatigue and boredom. There is nothing to do but "to pull the plug," as neither machine will resign until the dirt is being shovelled on its coffin.

Chess Challenger X appears to be a better buy than Chess Champion Mark I. But is it worth its $200 price tag? Judge for yourself. The following observations are based on more than 100 games played since December 1978:

1. Challenger X never castles. Often, where castling is obviously called for, the computer will make a silly move, such as h4, Kf1, or Rf1. Chess Champion for its faults, does often castle.

- 2. In the two cases where the position has arisen, Challenger has refused as a legal move a Queen-side castle by White when the b1 square was under attack by the computer's bishop. It would appear that whoever programmed the computer was himself ignorant of the laws of chess regarding castling.
- 3. Whereas Challenger will frequently use the en passant rule to capture an opponent's pawn, it stubbornly refuses to accept the legality of en passant captures of its own pawns.
- 4. Challenger, like Champion, is apparently programmed to regard knights and bishops as fully equivalent pieces and shows no hesitation in giving up the "minor exchange." Its sense of pawn structure is poorly developed, so that it does not hesitate to double or even triple its pawns, even when these awkward formations could easily be avoided.
- 5. Don't pay any attention to the advertiser's claim that the micro-computer will play such classic defenses as the Ruy Lopez, French, Sicilian, etc. Its knowledge of the "book" stops at the third or fourth move.
- 6. The claim that the computer plays at 10 levels of sophistication must be taken with a grain of salt. For "sophistication" substitute "average response time." It's performance at Level 1 (beginner: 5 seconds) is spectacularly bad, and there is a noticeable qualitative leap at Level 2 (intermediate: 15 seconds), and an even greater improvement at Level 8 (expert: 11 minutes). Level 8 is actually its highest level, a rather confusing design feature.

In order to compare Challenger's responses at different levels of play, I set up the following position, chosen at ran dom from the Encyclopedia of Chess Openings (E59:11):

- [1] Nichols-Challenger (Level 5: superior: 2:20 minutes): 1 d4 Nf6 2 c4 e6 3 Nc3 Bb4 4 e3 0-0 5 Nf3 d5 6 Bd3 c5 7 0-0 Nc6 8 a3 Bc3 9 bc3 dc4 10 Bc4 Qc7 11 Bd3... The machine is now on its own: 11 ...c4? 12 Bc2 b6? 13 e4 Bb7 14 e5 Nd5 15 Bh7+! Kh7 16 Ng5+ Kg6 17 Qg4 Qe7 18 Ne6+ Qg5 19 Qg5+ resigns (1-0)
- [2] Nichols-Challenger (Level 9: excellent: 6 minutes) 11...c4 12 Bc2 b6 13 e4 Ng4 14 h3 Nf6 15 e5 Nd5 16 Bh7+ Kh7 17 Ng5+ Kg8 18 Qh5 Rd8 19 Qh7+ resigns (1-0)
- [3] Nichols-Challenger (Level 8: expert: 11 minutes); 11 ... c4 12 Bc2 b6 13 e4 Ng4 14 h3 Nf6 15 e5 Nd5 16 Bh7+ Kh7 17 Ng5 Kg6 18 Qg4 Bb7 19 Ne6+ (1-0)

Some players naively ask if the machine is capable of learning from its mistakes. The answer is obvious. Equally obvious is the fact that even a five-fold increase in response time showed no improvement whatever in the machine's quality of play.

Champion Mark I is not a challenge, and Challenger  $\times$  is not a champion. I must agree with Roland Benoit's conclusion: "Either they must vastly increase in playing strength or their cost must come down to about \$50....\$200 or so is way out of line for what you get."

Leon Stancliff of Murfreesboro recently sent us a report on Boris (around $300):

I purchased a new Boris chess playing computer in December 1978 and decided to attack it systematically. The instruction manual suggested time limits for the machine of (1) immediate response — this means about 3 seconds,

(2) 20 seconds, (3) 2 minutes, and (4) 10 minutes. My own rating is at present somewhere between 1250 and 1300 USCF points. Below you will find the results of a series of four-game matches, with my score listed first. The time setting for Boris is on the left and the average time per game at that setting is given on the right.

Time setting	Score	· A	ver	age	time
0:00	4-0	1	hr	39	min
0:20	4-0	1	hr	40	min
2:00	4-0	2	hr	32	min
3:00	4-0	3	hr	10	min
4:00	4-0	3	hr	48	min
5:00	3-1	3	hr	50	min
6:00	3-1	4	hr	15	min
7:00	2-2	4	hr	52	min
8:00	3-1	6	hr	80	min
9:00	4-0	6	hr	58	min
10:00	1-3	7	hr	05	min

The average length of game was 38 moves. At the ten-minute level I did not win any games. The point I scored was on two draws.

I conclude that Boris is playing at around 1200 USCF at the five minute time setting, and somewhere in the vicinity of 1300 at the ten minute setting. There may be an incremental jump from the nine to the ten minute level. The series of games at the nine-minute level were played after having become accustomed to the style of the computer. It will fall into traps where material may be offered in place of very serious positional deficiencies.

Games from the 1979 Marshall International (March 10-19)

Popovich-Rohde: 1 e4 e5 2 f4 exf4 3 Nf3 d6 4 d4 g5 5 h4 g4 6 Ng1 Bh6 7 Nc3 Nc6 8 Qd3 Bd7 9 Nd5 Nf6 10 Ne2 Nxd5 11 exd5 Ne7 12 Bxf4 Bg7 13 c4 0-0 14 h5 b5 15 b3 bxc4 16 bxc4 c6 17 Bxd6 cxd5 18 c5 Re8 19 h6 Bh6 20 Rh5 Nc6 21 0-0-0 Qa5 22 a3 Rxe2 23 Bxe2 Nxd4 24 Bf1 Qa4 25 Be5 Nb3+ 26 Kb2 Nxc5 27 Qd2 Rb8+ (0-1)

Shamkovich-Morris: 1 c4 Nf6 2 Nc3 g6 3 e4 d6 4 d4 Bg7 5 f3 0-0 6 Be3 Nc6 7 Nge2 Rb8 8 Rb1 Nd7 9 Qd2 a6 10 h4 b5 11 cxb5 axb5 12 h5 b4 13 Nd1 e5 14 d5 Na5 15 Bh6 Bxh6 16 Qxh6 g5 17 Ng3 Nc5 18 Ne3 f6 19 Ngf5 Rf6 20 g3 c6 21 Rd1 b3 22 a3 cxd5 23 Rxd5 Nab7 24 Bc4 Be6 25 Kf2 Rc8 26 Rhd1 Qc7 27 Kg2 Rd8 28 Rxc5 Nxc5 29 Nd5 Bxd5 30 Bxd5 Kh8 31 Bxf7 Qxf7 32 Nxd6 (1-0)

J. Meyer-Vantilbury: 1 d4 Nf6 2 Nf3 g6 3 c4 Bg7 4 Nc3 0-0 5 e4 c5 6 dxc5 Qa5 7 Bd3 Nc6 8 0-0 Qxc5 9 Be3 Qh5 10 h3 d6 11 a3 Nd7 12 Be2 Nde5 13 Ng5 Qh4 14 g3 Qh6 15 h4 Bf6 16 Ne6 g5 17 hxg5 Bxg5 18 Nxg5 f6 19 Nf3 Qh3 20 Nxe5 Nxe5 21 Nd5 Kf7 22 Nf4 Qh6 23 Kg2 (1-0)

Kaufman-Biyiasas: 1 d4 Nf6 2 c4 g6 3 Nc3 Bg7 4 e4 d6 5 f3 0-0 6 Be3 e5 7 Nge2 c6 8 Qd2 Nbd7 9 d5 cxd5 10 cxd5 a6 11 g4 Ne8 12 Ng3 Bf6 13 h4 Bxh4 14 Qh2 Bxg3+ 15 Qxg3 f6 16 0-0-0 Rf7 17 Rd2 b5 18 Rdh2 Qa5 19 Kb1 b4 20 Nd1 Nc5 21 Bd2 Qb6 22 Ne3 a5 23 g5 Ba6 24 gxf6 Nxf6 25 Nf5 Kf8 26 Rxh7 Nxh7 27 Qxg6 Bxf1 28 Bh6+ Ke8 29 Nxd6+ Qxd6 30 Qxd6 Bd3+ 31 Ka1 Nd7 32 Qe6+ Re7 33 Qg6+ Rf7 34 Bg7 Ndf6 (1-0)

[USCF Press Release #5 of 1979]

11th NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR HI CHAMPIONSHIPS by Sabine

A number of Tennessee schools participated in these tournaments, held in Philadelphia, PA, on May 4-6, 1979.

The Cumberland County HS team scored 16 points to finish approximately 26th out of 50+ teams (25 trophies were awarded). A total of 320 players were in the Novice section. Pam Campbell, Mike Jones, James Hancock, Keith Lowe and Scott Langford each scored 4 points for CCHS. The team winner was Cony (ME), winning on tie-break over Bermadian Springs (PA), also with 23 points. Plant (FL) finished third with 22.5 points.

Christian Brothers (Memphis) and Baylor (Nashville) both participated in the HS Championship Section, scoring 16 and 15.5 points respectively. (I don't know in what place they finished or if they won a trophy, as I left before that section was finished.) Scoring for CBHS were Paul Linxwiler (4.5), Kenneth Robinson (4.5), Gregory Hood (4) and Mitchell Cheeseman (3). Scoring for Baylor were David Thistlethwaite (5.5), Danny Silverstein (4.5), Jimmy Gorton (4), Scott Godfrey (4) and Clark Brown (4). There were 41 teams and 270 players in the HS Championship Section.

In the JHS section Martin (Crossville) scored 16.5 points, which was good for 16th or 17th place (again only 15 trophies were available). Scoring for Martin were Mike Kerley (4.5), Terry Burdett (4), Gary Stockslager (4), Tom LeMasters (4), Wade Kendrick (4), William Gwin (4) and Bruce England (4).

Baylor finished 12th in the JHS with 18 points: Terry Paige (5), David Pratt (5), Pete Austin (4) and Jimmy Aisago (4).

Individuals in the JHS were David Lynn of Apollo (5), Bruce Lemieux of Pleasant Hill (4) and Bobby Mayfield of Homestead (2.5).

The high point for Cumberland County was Terry Burdett's upsetting the 5thrated player in the JHS section in the first round:

Terry Burdett (766)-Grant Gillen (1779): National JHS: Rd 1

1 e4 e6 2 Nf3 d5 3 e5 c5 4 b3 Nc6 5 Bb5 Bd7 6 Bb2 Nxe5 7 Bxd7 Nxd7

8 d4 Nf6 9 c4 cxd4 10 cxd5 Bb4+ 11 N1d2 Bc3 12 dxe6 fxe6 13 Bxc3 dxc3

14 Nc4 0-0 15 0-0 b5 16 Ng5 bxc4 17 Nxe6 Qc8 18 Nxf8 Nxf8 19 Rc1 Ne4

20 Qd5+ Kh8 21 Qxe4 cxb3 22 axb3 Ne6 23 Rxc3 Qxc3 24 Qxa8+ (1-0)

MEMPHIS CHAMPIONSHIPS [see "Crosstables"]

The 1979 Pillsbury Chess Club Championship was won by Jack Smith, Jr. Randy Cope was awarded the "Most Improved" prize.

The 1979 Memphis Chess Club Championship was won by Mahlon Smith III; John F. Hurt captured second place a half-point behind.

A Smith vs. Smith match has been agreed upon, but, like true champions, there is the inevitable hard bargaining over the number of wins and draw clauses.

BLUFF CITY OPEN [see "Crosstables"]

The 7th Annual Bluff City Open, sponsored by the Memphis Chess Club, was won by James Rackley in a tie-break over Marty Appleberry. The last round found Rackley playing Gary Pylant on board two, Appleberry versus Rick Herbers on board one, and Randy Cope versus Jack Smith on board three; all six had earned three points each. Jack had beaten Marty, and Randy had beaten John Hurt in earlier rounds, but the two upset-prone players could only manage draws in the last round to finish in third and fourth place respectively. [Jack Smith]

International News

KARPOV & TAL TIE

World Champion Anatoly Karpov and former World Champion Mikhail Tal tied for first place in the spectacular Chess Challenge Cup in Montreal (April 10-May 8). The two Russian grandmasters each scored 12 points of a possible 18 to lead the strongest field in recent times, possibly ever.

Only a handful of other tournaments in chess history bear comparison. The great AVRO 1938 tournament in Holland, or the Nottingham, England, event of the same year are in the same class. However, only the 1948 World Championship, held in the Hague and Moscow really vies with the Chess Challenge Cup for the honor of being the strongest tournament ever. That event was won by Mikhail Botvinnik, one of Karpov's teachers.

In recent years, FIDE has ranked tournaments by categories based on the average rating of the event. The previous record was Category 14 —both the Bugojno, Yugoslavia and the Tilburg, Holland tournaments reached that level last year. The average rating of the Chess Challenge Cup was 2622; the Category was 15. Ten of the world's twenty top players competed.

The prize fund was $110,000, making this the richest chess tournament in history. Karpov and Tal each won $21,500 for their performances. Additionally, there was a brilliancy prize of $1000. Svetozar Gligoric, the tournament director, was unable to decide between the second encounters of Tal-Spassky and Larsen-Karpov and so split the prize between Tal and Larsen.

Here is the brevity from round 10 that earned Tal his half of the brilliancy prize:

Spassky-Tal			Spassky-Tal
1	d4	Nf6	12	cxd5	exd5
2	c4	e6 .	13	dxc5	bxc5
3	Nf3	b6	14	Qc3	Rfe8
4	e3	Bb7	15	Rfd1	d4
5	Bd3	d5	16	exd4	cxd4
6	b3	Bd6	17	Qa5	Ne5
7	0-0	0-0	18	Nxe5	Bxe5
8	Bb2	Nbd7	19	Nc4	Rd5
. 9	Nbd2	Qe7	20	Qd2	Bxh2+
10	Rac1	Rad8	21	Kxh2	Rh5+
11	Qc2	c5	22	Kg1	Ng4
Spassky resigned because he could not

Spassky resigned because he could not stop the black Queen from invading on the h-file. 23 g3 loses instantly to 23...Rh8 mate.

Position after 19 Nc4:

Story and game courtesy of US Chess Federation (Press releases ##9 and 11 of 1979)

Tal's lucky number this year appears to be 22, as witness Tal-Larsen:

1 e4 e5 2 Nf3 Nc6 3 d4 cxd4 4 Nxd4 Nf6 5 Nc3 d6 6 Bg5 e6 7 Qd2 Be7

8 0-0-0 a6 9 f4 Qc7 10 Be2 Nxd4 11 Qxd4 b5 12 e5 dxe5 13 fxe5 Nd5

14 Bxe7 Nxc3 15 Bf3 Nxd1 16 Bd6 Qc4 17 Qb6 Nf2 18 Bx6+ Bd7 19 Bxd7+

Kxd7 20 Qb7+ Kd8 21 Qxa8+ Qc8 22 Qa7 (1-0)

6th KING COTTON OPEN [see "Crosstables" section]

Marty Appleberry captured 1st in a tie-break over Ron Minor. Sid Pickard finished in 3rd place, edging out four other players on tie-breaks. [John Hurt]

MUSIC CITY SPRING OPEN [see "Crosstables" section]

Ronald Roe chalked up 4.5 points to win the 35-player event. Nashville's perennial bridesmaid, David Thistlethwaite, fought Ronald to a draw in the last round and finished in second place when his 4-1 deadlock with George Jamison and Michael Mitelman was resolved by tie-break. [Peter Lahde]

CHALLENGE CUP

Crossville and Sparta have established a Cumberland County-White County challenge cup as a traveling trophy between the two counties. Two matches have been held so far, and Sparta presently holds the trophy. Other cities might consider having a similar trophy to play for each time they hold a match. [Sabine]

KNOXVILLE-CROSSVILLE MATCH by Frank Larimer

An underdog Crossville team out to avenge their previous defeat gave Knoxville a severe scare before bowing 11-9 to their hosts in a ten-board match held in Knoxville, March 25. Strong play on the lower boards allowed Crossville to claim a 5 1/2 - 4 1/2 first round lead. Knoxville rallied in the second round, leaving the match to be decided on board one. Dickerson, needing only a draw to clinch the match, brought home the full point against Sabine, widening a slim margin of victory. In an unrated juniors match, played concurrently, Knoxville scraped by with a 6 1/2 - 5 1/2 win. The Greater Knoxville Chess Club gratefully acknowledges the generosity of the Arnstein Jewish Community Center for providing the playing site.

Knoxville			Crossville
Leonard Dickerson Richard Carpenter Richard Igou Ron Easter Frank Larimer Mike Headrick Louis Groeniger Thomas Cole Harold Weaver Russell Baker	1741 1665 1536 1456 1394 1305 1139 UNR UNR	1-1 1-1/2 1-1 1-0 0-1 1/2-0 0-0 0-1 0-1	Harry Sabine Gary Kendrick Larry Thomas Thomas Collard John White Pamela Campbell James Hancock Toby Rodgers Chuck Lovingood Bobby Wilson	1479 1389 1379 1327 1022 975 738 651 338 UNR	0-0 0-1/2 0-0 0-1 1-0 1/2-1 1-1 1-0 1-0 9 .

KNOXVILLE QUICK SWISS [see "Crosstables" section]

Twelve players turned out for this 3-SS, six per section event, played on April 21 at the UT Student Center. Frank Larimer directed.

KNOXVILLE-NASHVILLE MATCH [see "Crosstables" section]

A ten-board, two-round match was contested in Crossville on April 22, with Nashville pulling away to a 14-6 win. The out-rated Knoxville team managed to tie 5-5 after the first round, but succumbed quietly as Nashville won 8 and drew 2 games in the final round. [Frank Larimer]

1979 CROSSVILLE OPEN [see "Crosstables" section]

Ben Sides, an Expert from Alabama, dominated the tournament from the first round to the last (5-0). Leonard Dickerson and Richard Bennett shared second place honors with 4-1 scores. L. Thad Rogers directed.

Incidentally, Thad, whose directorial energies seem boundless, recently became the only National Tournament Director in the South. Congratulations!

MEMPHIS CITY AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP [see "Crosstables" section]

Paul Linxwiler went undefeated to capture the amateur championship on February 10-11. Briane Hufford, an unrated player, topped the field of five players who tied for second place. [Jack Smith]

COUGAR I

Jerry Wheeler and George Jamison scored 2.5 points each in this threeround event to share top honors. Six players (Brian McCarthy, Kenneth Chaney, Charles Laws, Tom Thorpe, Mike Gee and Danny Poole finished 2-1. Although the turnout in Cleveland State University's first [?] rated tournament was small (13 players), six of the entrants, including Gee and Poole, were new, unrated players. James W. Sims directed.

SPACE CITY OPEN

Four Tennsseans braved freezing temperatures and snow flurries to play in Huntsville, AL, on March 23-24. Henry Robinson of Nashville won the 16-player event with 4 1/2 points. Robert N. Edwards, Jr. of Fayetteville, who is currently a student in Huntsville and secretary-treasurer of the Huntsville Chess Club, won the top Class B prize. [Wally Helgeson]

"HELP-LOSSES" by Doug LaVerne

For your amusement, here are two innocuous-looking positions, each of which has a"help-loss in one." Both positions are from real games -- one between me and my friend Gordon Manning, the other between Gordon and a postal opponent in Pennsylvania.

In both games White is to play the best one-move loss (which is what excludes such obvious choices as actually happened). This, of course, putting the Queen en prise, etc. In both games White has at least a draw (in #1, for example, 1 N-N5 probably wins).

[1] 1 R-Q2? (...P-Q5! 2 PxP Q-N4 3 P-B4 Nxp; or 2 N-K2 Q-N4 3 P-N3 RxR 4 NxR PxP 5 R moves Q-Q4).

[2] 1 K-B5?? R-K4 mate!

The reader can find an analogous situation in the Jones-Searles postal game pub lished in this issue -- Editor.

Manning

Curt Rhudy

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TOURNAMENT PLAYERS -- AN ORGANIZER'S DREAM

There are penalties for violations of tournament rules, but what does a director do when players do not use common sense? If all players followed the common sense guidelines given here, tournaments would run smoother, and everyone would have a more tournaments would run smoother, and everyone would have a more enjoyable time. We have an idea that this is not the last time that we will see these maxims published, so players should study them and directors give credit when republishing them!

Your ideas for additions and revisions are appreciated—5. Dann.

- Enter tournaments in advance if possible. If not, come early so the event may start on time. Get directions to the tournament site in advance.
- Know your last published rating, always carry your member-ship cards, and, if entering late, have exact amount of entry fee in cash or check.
- Always know what section you are playing in and know when the next round will start without asking the director.
- 4. Be sure you can be on time to each round or tell the tournament director well in advance. This includes being able to come early on Sunday morning if you have an adjourned game from the day before.
- Bring equipment, or be prepared to borrow it, or, wait until it becomes available. A board, set, clock and pen or pencil are essential equipment.
- Agree to a draw if your opponent proposes one in a hope-lessly drawn position. Don't keep on playing to spite your opponent, the director, or the players waiting for the next round to begin.
- 7. Purchase a copy of the Official Chess Rulebook and read it carefully.
  - Make sure all your equipment has your identification on it and don't leave it unattended. Directors are not equipment attendents!
- Leave the tournament room after you complete your game and record your result. Players with games in progress have a right to silence.
- 10. If you have a protest, quietly contact the director right away. Claims and protests should be made in accordance away. Claims and protests with USCF tournament rules.

[Reprinted from Chess Horizons, Feb-Mar 1979]

White to play and win:

In the position on the right, Paul Whitehead played 29 Rxg6 and Grandmaster Janosevic of Yugoslavia resigned, since 29...Rxg6 loses to 30 f7.

TCN now publishes details of tournament announcements up to four months ahead. The August issue will cover events scheduled between August 15 and December 31. (Deadline for copy: July 15.)

Unpaid tournament announcements of events in neighboring states will be published on a first-come-first-served basis.

Wally Helgeson, current Alabama and 350-369 zip code clearing-house director, writes that all tournament organizers in Central Tennessee can and should send detailed flyers to him. He will distribute copies throughout the northern Alabama chess centers (such as Huntsville, Decatur, Anniston, and Birmingham. Other areas in TN are welcome to send flyers, but travel time would prohibit a response. Mail flyers to: Wally F. Helgeson 2008 Roundleaf Green Huntsville, AL 35803

370-385 Tmt Clearinghouse

As TN's tournament coordinator, Arthur Hager, is currently outof-state, Jack E. Smith, Jr., 3436 Carnes #6, Memphis, TN 38111 has volunteered to act as pro tem coordinator through August 31.

TCA/TCN memberships

Subscribers are reminded that all 1978-79 memberships will expire as of August 31, 1979.

In the next issue:

Proposed new Charter and Bylaws of the Tennessee Chess Association.

Games from Recent Events

 Jack Smith (1678)-James Jones (1789): 1 c4 g6 2 Nc3 Bg7 3 Nf3 Nf6 4 e4 d6

 5 d4 0-0 6 Be2 Nbd7 7 h3 a5 8 Be3 e5 9 Qc2 c6 10 dxe5 dxe5 11 Rad1 Qe7

 12 Na4 b5 13 cxb5 cxb5 14 Bxb5 Qb4+ 15 Nc3 Rb8 16 a3 Qe7 17 0-0 Nc5

 18 Nd5 Nxd5 19 Rxd5 Rxb5 20 Rxc5 Rxc5 21 Qxc5 Qxc5 22 Bxc5 Re8 23 b4

 axb4 24 axb4 Bb7 25 Re1 Bf8 26 Nd2 Bxc5 27 bxc5 Rc8 28 Rc1 Kf8 29 f3

 Ke7 30 Nb3 Kd7 31 Kf2 Ra8 32 Ra1 Rxa8 33 Nxa1 Kc6 34 Nb3 Ba6 35 a3

 f5 (1/2-1/2)

Rick Herbers (1635)-Jack Smith (1678): 1 d4 Nf6 2 g3 g6 3 Bg2 Bg7 4 c4 0-0 5 Nc3 d6 6 Nf3 Nbd7 7 0-0 c6 8 e4 e5 9 Qc2 Qe7 10 Be3 Ng4 11 Bg5 f6 12 Bd2 a5 13 Rae1 f5 14 exf5 gxf5 15 Bg5 Qf7 16 dxe5 dxe5 17 h3 e4 18 hxg4 exf3 19 Bxf3 Ne5! 20 Bg2 fxg4 21 Bf4 Nf3+ 22 Bxf3 gxf3 23 Re3 Bg4 24 Ne4 Qh5 25 Ng5 Bf6 26 Qh7+ Qxh7 27 Nxh7 Kxh7 28 Rb3 Rf7 29 Rd1 Rae8 30 Rd6 Re1+ 31 Kh2 Kg6 (0-1)

Joe Roberdeau (1774-Tom Harley (1625): 1 P-KB4 P-QB4 2 N-KB3 N-QB3 3 P-QN3 N-B3 4 B-N2 P-K3 5 P-K3 P-Q3 6 B-K2 B-K2 7 0-0 0-0 8 P-Q4 PxP 9 PxP P-QN3 10 B-Q3 B-N2 11 QN-Q2 N-Q4 12 Q-K1 NxP 13 B-N5 P-QR3 14 BxN BxB 15 N-K4 R-B1 16 N/3-Q2 N-N3 17 Q-K2 B-N2 18 P-B4 P-Q4 19 N-N3 B-N4 20 N-B3 N-B5 21 Q-QB2 B-K2 22 Q-Q2 N-N3 23 QR-QB1 B-Q3 24 N-R5 PxP 25 PxP Q-B2 26 P-Q5 P-K4 27 N-N5 Q-K2 28 N-K4 B-N1 29 P-Q6 Q-R5 30 P-Q7 R-B2 31 N/4-B6+ PxN 32 P-Q8(=Q) RxQ 33 QxR+ N-B1 34 NxP+ K-N2 35 N-K8+ K-N1 36 QxQ (1-0)

Alexander Zhislin (0)-Kent Meadows (1732): 1 P-QB4 P-K4 2 N-QB3 N-QB3 3 N-KB3 P-KN3 4 P-Q4 PxP 5 NxP B-N2 6 NxN NPxN 7 P-K4 N-K2 8 B-KN5 P-KR3 9 B-KR4 0-0 10 Q-KB3 R-QN1 11 P-QN3 P-KN4 12 B-KN3 P-Q4 13 KPxP PxP 14 R-Q1 R-K1 15 B-K2 P-Q5 16 0-0 N-KB4? [a] 17 N-Q5 R-QN2 18 B-Q3 NxB 19 BPxN P-QB4 20 B-K4 R-K4 21 B-KB5 P-QR3 22 QR-K1 BxB 23 QxB RxQRP 24 P-KR4 PxP 25 R-K4 R-QR3 26 R/1-K1 [b] R-K3 27 RxR PxR 28 QxP K-R1 29 N-K7 P-Q6 30 N-N6+K-R2 31 Q-B5 K-N1 32 Q-K6+K-R2 33 Q-B5 K-N1 34 Q-K6+K-R2 (1/2-1/2)

[a] I think Black has a win here with 16...P-N5! 17 Q-Q3 B-B4! 18 Q-Q2 PxN etc. [b] Now it's White's turn for a pretty combination: 26 R-K7! RxR 27 NxR+ QxN 28 Q-B8+ followed by 29 QxR, winning the exchange. Unfortunately, the passed Q pawn probably gives Black adequate compensation. [Lahde]

Steve Choatie (1565)-Morris Lewis (1325): 1 d4 b6 2 c4 Nf6 3 Nc3 Bb7 4 e3 e6 5 Nf3 Be7 6 Bd3 d5 7 0-0 Nbd7 8 Qc2 c5 9 cxd5 exd5 10 dxc5 Nxc5 11 Bb5+ Ncd7 12 Ne5 0-0 13 Nf3 Qc7 14 Qf5 Rad8 15 Bd2 a6 16 Ba4 Nc5 17 Rac1 Rd6 18 Ne2 Qb8 19 Bc2 Nfe4 20 Bb4 Rh6 21 Bxc5 Nd2! 22 h3! [if 22 Nd2? Qh2 mate; if B retreats or captures, 22...Nf3+ 23 gf Qh2 mate --Lahde] Nxf3+ 23 Qxf3 Bxc5 24 Bb3 d4 25 e4 Qe5 26 Ng3 Rg6 27 Qd3 Re8 28 f4 Bxe4 29 fxe5 Bxd3 30 Bxf7+ Kh8 31 Bxg6 Bxg6 32 Kh2 Rxe5? 33 Rxc5! Rxc5?? 34 Rf8 mate (1-0)

David Thistlethwaite (1776)-Michael Mitelman (2003): 1 b3 d5 2 Bb2 Bf5 3 e3 Nc6 4 Nf3 Nf6 5 Be2 e6 6 0-0 Bd6 7 Nh5 Bg6 8 f4 Qe7 9 f5 Ne4 10 Qe1 ef 11 Nf5 Bf5 12 Rf5 0-0-0 13 Bg4 Kb8 14 d3 Nf6 15 Bf6 gf 16 Nc3 Be5 17 Qd2 Bc3 18 Qc3 Qe3+ 19 Kh1 d4 20 Qe1 Rd6 21 Qf2 Ke8 22 Rf1 Nb4 23 Rf6 Rf6 24 Qf6 Nc2 25 Qf7 a6 (1/2-1/2)

TENNESSEE POSTAL CHESS by Stan Bimson

Postal Chess - Why? A good question; most postal players have reasons why they play, but what are yours? To the best set of reasons go 10 postal cards with postage (as sold by US Post Office). Send yours today and next issue we will see what we have.

1979 Tennessee Postal Championship. Prize fund based on entries. All entry money returned in a cash prize fund to the top 3 finishers. Assignments are in 4-man sections with mixed classes, play six games -- half as white, half as black. Entry fee is $3 per section and you may enter more than one section. TCA membership is required. For more details see the April issue of TCN and/or to enter, write: Stan Bimson, Rt 2 Box 293, Hendersonville, TN 37075.

Vacations! What to do when! Are you going on vacation for a week, two weeks or more this summer? What about a three or four day weekend? Whatever, whenever you plan to go off this summer, inform your postal opponents of your schedule in advance. This will insure smooth continuation of all your postal games.

Game Results (received on/before 15 May 1979): MLE/PF Searles 1/2 Noonan, Irwin 1 Noonan, Jones 1 Groeniger; C4/2/78 (challenge) Jones 1 Searles.

Ratings (only changes are shown; see April TCN for complete list of players): Groeniger 522.05 Jones 989.08 Searles 819.21 Irwin 719.06 Noonan

Challenge Matches! Play the opponent or opening of your choice for only 25¢ per player per game. All postal rated. See April issue for details of challenge matches.

Postal game (C4/2/78) Curt Jones - Richard Searles 1 e4 g6 2 d4 Bg7 3 Nf3 d6 4 Nc3 Nf6 5 Be2 0-0 6 0-0 c6 7 a4 Qc7 8 h3 e5 9 Be3 ed4 10 Bd4 Re8 11 Bc4 Ne4 12 Re1 Nf6 13 Bf6 Re1+ 14 Qe1 Nf6 15 Qe8+ Kg7 16 Ne4 Be6 17 Nf6 Bc4 18 Re1 Be6 19 Qe6! fe6 20 Ne8+ (1-0)

Games from King Cotton Open

APPLEBERRY-SULCER 1 Nf3 Nf6 2 g3 g6 3 b3 d5 4 Bb2 c5 5 c4 Bg7 6 Bg2 d4 7 b4 Nbd7 8 0-0 e5 9 bc5 Qc7 10 e3 d3 11 Nc3 0-0 12 Nb5 Qb8 13 Rb1 e4 14 Ng5 Nc5 15 Bf6 Bf6 16 Ne4 Ne4 17 Be4 a6 18 Nd4 Qd6 19 Bd5 Rb8 20 Qf3 Bh3 21 Rfe1 b6 22 g4 Bg4 23 Qg4 h5 24 Qg6+ (1-0)

J.WRIGHT-APPLEBERRY 1 d4 Nf6 2 Nf3 g6 3 e3 Bg7 4 b3 0-0 5 Bd3 d6 6 0-0 e5 7de5 Ng4 8 Bb2 Ne5 9 Ne5 Be5 10 Be5 de5 11 Nd2 Qe7 12 f4 ef4 13 ef4 Bf5 14 Bf5 Qc5+ 15 Kh1 Qf5 16 Nc4 Nc6 17 Ne3 Qc5 18 Qf3 Rae8 19 Nd5 f5 20 c4 Nb8 21 Rae1 Nd7 22 Qc3 c6 23 Nc7 Re1 24 Re1 Qf2 25 Qe3? Qe3 26 Re3 Nf6 27 Kg1 Rd8 28 Re2 Ne4 29 g3 Kf7 30 b4 Rc8 (0-1)37

THORNBERRY-APPLEBERRY 1 d4 Nf6 2 c4 c5 3 d5 g6 4 Nf3 d6 5 Nc3 Bg7 6 e4 0-0 7 Bd3 e6 8 0-0 ed5 9 cd5 a6 10 a4 Bg4 11 h3 Bf3 12 Qf3 Nbd7 13 Bg5 h6 14 Bh4 Qc7 15 Bc2 b5 16 ab5 ab5 17 Nb5 Qb6 18 Qe2 Rfb8 19 Nd6 Qd6 20 Bg3 Ne5 21 f4 Nh5 22 fe5 Ng3 23 Qf3 Qe5 24 Qf7+ Kh7 25 Ra8 Ra8 26 Rel Rf8 27 Qb7 Nfl 28 Rfl Qd4+ (0-1)

```
7th ANNUAL BLUFF CITY

1 James R Rackley
2 Marty Appleberry
3 Jack E Smith, Jr
4 Randy W Cope
5 Charles Herbers
6 Gary M Pylant
7 David R Hawkes
8 Daniel L Boyd
9 Ed Issa
10 John F Hart
10 John F Hart
11 James H Mitchell
13 Paul Lirsowler
14 Larry S Whest
15 Rolf Uwe Pludra
15 Rolf Uwe Pludra
16 Rolf Uwe Pludra
16 Rolf Uwe Pludra
17 Lerow Brown
18 Gordon E Soot
19 Benjamin F Williams
20 William N Gross
21 Charles M Dangeu
2 Worris L Busby
28 Billy Morris
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     MUSIC CITY SPRING O

1 Randid Roe
2 David Thattethwate
3 George Jamison
4 Michael Mittelman
5 Kent Meadows
6 Steven Choatie
7 Alan D Gambrell
8 Jerry T Wheeter
9 Alexander Zhistin
12 Don Sibrel
13 Soft Ziralin
12 Don Sibrel
14 Kenneth McElhaney
14 Kenneth McElhaney
15 Mark D Richardson
16 Bitt Conte
17 Paul Zepatinsky
19 William Spring
19 William Spring
19 John W Childress
21 John L White
22 Eric Martin
23 Diane Burgess
24 J Scott Bernett
23 John W Storrs
24 J Scott Bernett
25 John W Storrs
27 Peter Gregory
26 David Lynn
27 Peter Gregory
28 David Lynn
29 Jim Seymour
30 Harry Hopewell
31 Edward Devenpeck
32 Grayson Green
39 D Ray Startill
34 Milke Barton
5 Ross Advisors
6 Ross Advisors
6 Ross Advisors
7 Ross A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      MUSIC CITY SPRING OPEN, NASHVILLE, APRIL 28-29
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   1741
2227
1639
1391
1652
1693
1363
0
1694
1831
1545
1339
1491
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 W21
W15
W22
W10
W19
W14
D9
---
D7
L4
W16
Bye
W23
L6
L2
L11
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     D5 W9 D6 W11 D1 D3 L10 W16 L2 W7 L4 W21 W19 L17 L8 W15 L14 Bye L12 W23 L22
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       D3
W10
D1
W13
D6
D5
D14
W9
L8
L2
W22
W17
L4
D7
D18
W20
L12
D15
W21
L16
L19
Bye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              W8 4.0
W5 4.0
D4 3.8
D3 3.5
L2 3.0
L1 3.0
W12 3.0
W12 3.0
W12 2.5
D10 2.5
L6 2.5
L7 2.0[7]
D16 2.0
D15 2.0
W14 2.0
— 1.5
W28 1.5
— 1.0
— 1.0
— 1.0
— 1.0
— 1.0
— 0.5
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    W11 D4 W10 D2 W13 L8 W7 D5 L3 L1 W30 D20 W23 W24 --- W35 L16 L20 D14 L19 D28 D27 D15 E12 Bye L17 L12 L17 L15 E18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            1st
2nd
2nd
2nd
2md
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     W3
W5
L1
D9
L2
W16
W28
W20
D4
W12
W27
L10
W25
WF
L17
L6
W15
W29
W31
L8
W24
L22
L21
L11
L7
L18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         2nd D
2nd D
1st E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        1452
0
1579
1627
1184
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 W20
L5
L18
L1
L3
L13
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 2nd E
2nd E
2nd E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        0
1383
1033
1000
                     22 Morris L Busby
23 Billy Morris
MEMPHIS CITY AMATEUI
1 Paul Linxwiler
2 Briane Hufford
3 Benjamin F Williams
4 Joseph H Owens
5 Krincarov Naraghian
6 Michael R Stewart
7 Rolf Uwe Pludra
9 Paul A Brubwiler
10 Philip S Maelin, 5r
11 Robert F Stewart
12 Jeff Ice
13 Kenneth A Robinson
14 James W Clark
16 Ronald Hill
16 Ronald Hill
17 Louis T Weis
18 Donald Antrim
19 Charles M Dangeau
20 James Fisher
21 Walter Eaver
22 Mark R "Wilkinson
28 Howard Haglin
24 Jenn W Rovies
28 Howard Haglin
24 Jenn W Rovies
28 Jenn W Rovies
29 Howard Haglin
24 Jenn W Rovies
20 Jenn W Rovies
21 Bl.S. Rice (1), 26 Eddi
                | MEMPHS CITY AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP | Paul Linswiller | 1491 | W11 | W26 | W26 | W36 | W37
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        1491
0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              W2 5.0
L1 4.0
WF 4.0
W8 4.0
W7 4.0
L4 8.0
W16 8.0
LF 8.0
W17 8.0
L5 2.5
W22 2.0
L1 2.0
W22 2.0
W22 2.0
W22 2.0
L1 1.0
L2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   W8
W28
W28
W13
W24
WF
W9
L1
L7
W28
W22
L17
L4
W21
W18
W19
W12
L16
L16
L25
L14
L11
L10
L5
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                W15
WF
W4
L3
L7
W17
W5
W18
W26
W16
W19
D14
D13
L1
L10
L6
L8
L11
L21
W20
W23
L22
LF
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       W7
W15
L8
W16
W9
W14
L1
W3
L5
W11
L10
W21
W18
L6
L2
L4
W19
L13
L17
W22
L4
W19
L13
L17
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       L26
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          L19
W33
L32
---
L26
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            L25
L23
Bye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Tournament Directors: Peter Lahde and Diane Burgess
NASHVILLE-KNOXVILLE MATCH, CROSSVILLE, APRIL 22
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Nashville
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Knoxville
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       Curt Jones
Mike Mitelman
Jerry Wheeler
Roy T. Farr
David Thistlethwaite
Kent Meadows
Brian McCarthy
Peter Lande
Robert Yokley
Jody Landrum
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 2147 1-1 Leonard Dickerson 1820
2003 1-1 Richard Menuet 1807
1938 1-1 Richard Sennett 1774
1500 0-1 Richard Sennett 1774
1500 0-1 Richard Sennett 1676
1732 1-1/2 Larry Crewton 1655
1661 0-1/2 Alex Berrero 1565
1589 1/2-1 Ron Easter 1866
1589 1/2-1 Frank Larimer 1307
1537 0-1 Mike Headrick 1286
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      0-0
0-0
1-0
1-0
0-1/2
1-1/2
1/2-0
1-0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                1979 CROSSVILLE OPEN, MARCH 31-APRIL 1
                     MUSIC CITY WINTER OPEN, NASHVILLE, MARCH 17-18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          1979 CROSSVILLE OPEI
1 Ban Sides
2 Leonard Dickerson
3 Richard Bennett
4 David Freitag
5 George Jamison
6 Richard Carpenten
7 Auguston
7 Bannett
10 Edward Murphy
11 Gary McMurray
12 Charles Vaughan
13 Thornas P White
14 Gary W Kendrick
15 Famela C Campeil
16 Thornas P Collard
16 Thornas P Collard
16 Thornas P Collard
18 Miles R Wilson
19 Bob D Bow
20 Roy D Rich
21 W. L. Severson
22 William Valentino
23 Clinton Pearson, Jr
24 Randy Rownat
25 Robert L Young
26 Bobby L Wilson
26 Bobby L Wilson
27 Couranes Tournament Directori L.
1 Randy Kölvic
2 Dave Thistlethwaite
3 Dernis Gogel
4 Roe
5 Ronald Roe
6 Kent Meadows
7 Doug Ralston
8 Garry McMurnay
9 George Jamison
10 Jos Ritchman
11 John Freeman
11 John Freeman
12 John Freeman
13 Joe Roberdeau
14 Rick Igou
15 Richard Carpenter
16 Rick Cumby
17 Steven Choatie
18 David Lynn
10 David Kymn
10 David Rese
18 David Lynn
10 David Rese
19 Todd Kinnane
21 Todd Kinnane
22 Russ Eagle
23 Grayson Green
24 Bobby Chapuis
25 Eby Banes
26 Larry Hinson
27 Michael White
20 Todd Kenneth McElhaney
31 T.B. Shelton
32 T.R. Shelton
32 T.R. Shelton
33 Tom Fare
34 Banry Wheeler
36 Don Sibrel
37 Jennifer Ball
38 Jesse Ammatrout
39 Darryll Marsee
40 Louis Groenigen
41 Ross Adkinson
42 Diane Surgesia
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  4.5 1st 4.0 2nd=1 4.0 2nd=1 4.0 2nd=1 4.0 2nd=1 5.0 2nd=
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               1st 84.00
2nd 36.00
2nd 36.00
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             W25 W11 W14 W12 D6 D5 W24 W30 W27 W16 L2 L4 W39 L30 W47 W34 L26 L10 W34 L26 L10 L20 D37 W34 L26 L13 L32 L25 L13 L32 L25 L31 L31 L32 L25 L31 L31 L31 L31 L31
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    2018 W11
1759 W25
11761 W16
1759 W25
11700 W24
11710 W24
11710 W24
11710 W24
11711 W1710 W24
11711 W
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                W4
W6
W7
L1
W8
L2
L3
L5
W13
W17
W19
W21
L9
D15
D14
W24
L10
W23
L11
W26
L12
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      W5
W7
W6
W9
L1
L3
L2
W23
L4
W11
L10
W24
W15
W18
L13
Bye
W22
L14
W26
L21
W26
L21
L17
L8
L12
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          W3
L4
L1
W2
D13
W14
W17
W10
W21
L8
W18
LF
D5
L6
W20
W26
L7
L11
W23
L15
L9
LF
L19
Bye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              B 31.00
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     C 10.50
C 10.50
C 10.50
U 15.50
D 31.00
U 15.50
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      L18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        L19
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                1979 PILLSBURY CHAMPIONSHIP,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           1979 PILLSBURY CHAMPI

1 Jack E Smith Jr

2 Scott Pietcher

3 James A Wright

4 James E Jones

5 Randy W Cope

6 Jack C Span

6 Jack C Span

6 Repense

8 Rond Meek

9 Jeff Ice

10 Ed Stoy

MEMPHIS CHESS CLUB

1 Mahlon Smith III
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      1 1 1/2 0

× 1/2 1/2 1/2

1/2 × 0 1

1/2 1 × 0 1

1/2 1 × 0 1

1/2 0 1 × 1

0 1/2 1/2 1/2

0 0 1/2 1

0 0 0 1/2

0 0 0 0 0

0 0 0 0 0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      1 1 1 1 1 1/2 1 1/2 1/2 1/2 0 × 1/2 1/2 × 0 1 0 0 0 0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        1678
1873
1853
1789
1406
1524
1635
1371
0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          X
0
0
1/2
1
0
0
0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             1
1
1
1/2
1
0
X
0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      7.5
6.5
6.0
6.0
5.5
5.0
4.0
2.5
1.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           1 Mehlon Smith III
2 John F Hurt
3 Dale Flickenger
4 James A Wright
5 Gary M Pylant
6 Robert J Olsen
7 Mark McLaughlin
8 Thomas W Olsen
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    CHAMPIONSHIP 1979

X 1/2 1 1/2 1 1

X 0 1 1 1

0 1 X 1 1/2 1/2

1/2 0 0 X 1 1/2

0 0 1/2 0 X 1

0 0 1/2 1/2 0 X 1

0 0 1/2 1/2 0 X 0

0 0 0 0 0 0 0

0 0 0 0 0 0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              1949
1831
1720
1864
1693
1789
1625
1757
                Tournament Director: Morris Le
```

```
1 at SOUTHERN ELEME
2 798 1 Jay Schneider
2 Albert Write
3 Johnny Camilleri
4 Mike Payne
5 Todd Welch
6 Chairles Daugherty
7 Chuck Lovingood
8 Ron Burnett
9 Ran Jasher
11 Cirdy Sultivan
12 Susie Smathers
13 Jonathan Feinerman
14 Mike Write
15 Chris Byrd
16 Philippe Blumenthal
17 Tory Bow
18 Jeff Smathers
19 Bill Kayma
19 State Smathers
19 Bill Kayma
21 Stacy Pugh
22 John Roberson
28 Feith Threet
24 Jay Sabine
28 Perry Sarantopoulos
28 Ritchard Jones
29 Travis Wyatt
29 Perry Sarantopoulos
28 Ritchard Jones
29 Travis Wyatt
20 Dept Meadows
20 Mike Whitanant
31 Mike Mitchell
32 Tim Sexton
33 George Wallace
44 Steve Altmann
35 Jim Bertram
36 Avery York
37 Waste Bull
38 Finese own
38 Finese wom
39 Travis Work
39 Travis Work
39 Travis Work
39 Travis Work
30 Mike Mitchell
30 Tim Sexton
30 George Wallace
44 Steve Altmann
35 Jim Bertram
36 Avery York
37 Waste Bull
37 Travis Research
38 Trave Research
39 Travis Research
40 Troy Givens
                          1st SOUTHERN JUNIOR HIGH CHAMPIONSHIP, CROSSVILLE, MAR 31-APR 1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     1st SOUTHERN ELEMENTARY CHAMPIONSHIP, CROSSVILLE, MAR 31-APR 1
1 Devid Lynn
2 Tom Keyme
3 Tom Keyme
3 Tom Keyme
3 Tom Keyme
4 Brodke Reed
5 Darry Silverstei
6 Pete Austin
Terry Burdett nrk Brown
1d Mixon
12 Gary Stockslager
13 John Fleenor
12 Gary Stockslager
13 Holl Stockslager
14 John Fleenor
15 Wade Kendrick
16 Bruce Lemieux
17 Stever Robinson
19 Kendrick
16 Bruce Lemieux
17 Stever Robinson
19 Kendrick
18 Farediey Alley
2 David Inwin
20 Stever Sabline
21 Bradley Alley
2 David Inwin
20 Roses Addisson
20 Kantels Smith
21 Bradley Alley
2 David Invin
20 Roses Addisson
20 Social Shoulders
20 Paul Pickel
30 Larry Britt
31 Michael Reagan
32 Miller Bushong
32 Miller Bushong
33 Tommy Vaughn
45 Benjie Reed
37 Torry Ray
86 Gary Bush
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 W15
W7
W25
W12
W17
L2
W24
W86
L5
L4
W18
W30
W34
W30
W34
W30
L1
L10
L10
L28
W37
L21
L28
L20
L22
L32
L33
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               D5 5.5
W8 5.5
W9 5.0
W9 5.0
W9 5.0
W15 4.5
D1 4.5
W15 4.5
L2 4.0
L3 4.0
W24 4.0
L4 3.5
D7 3.5
L6 3.0
W28 3.0
W28 3.0
W29 3.0
W28 3.0
W29 2.0
W28 3.0
W29 3.0
W
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         W40
W13
W21
W38
W39
W26
W12
W33
W50
W28
L7
L2
W37
L2
W31
W34
L2
W35
W34
L2
L24
L31
L16
L9
L17
L8
L9
L18
L11
L16
L18
L11
L16
L20
L28
L11
L14
L4
L5
L11
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            W11
W90
W23
L10
W19
W18
W27
L2
W5
L1
W39
W30
L16
L33
W14
L7
L6
L3
W28
W38
L4
L17
W31
L17
W31
L25
L35
W15
L25
L25
L25
L25
L25
L25
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                W2. L1 W19 D8 W15 D7 D6 D4 W10 L9 W21 D24 W26 L17 W16 W28 L3 L25 L11 W36 D18 W35 L37 L28 W31 L37 L29 W31 L39 W31 L37 L39 W31 L37 L39 W31 L
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 W8 W3 L2 W211 W13 L7 W8 L1 W20 W19 L5 W34 W35 L16 L28 Bye W5 L22 Bye W40 L15 8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    W6 - W7 - W9 - D5 - D4 - L1 - L2 - W16 - W19 - W17 - W11 - W26 - L1 - L12 - W29 - W30 - L15 - D28 - D24 - L15 - D28 - W30 - L15 - D29 - D20 - L21 - L14 - L23 - W40 - D35 - D34 - D34 - D37 - D34 - D37 - D34 - L39 - W38 - L39 - L39 - W38 - L39 - L3
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            W39
L30
L32
L23
L27
L34
Bye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Team Standings
                 1 Baylor (3,5,8,10,6,13)

2 Martin "A" (7,11,12,15)

3 Fulaski "A" (14,18,19,21)

4 Greenwood "A" (4,27,28,30)

5 Pulaski "B" (20,22,24,32)

6 Martin "B" (17,23,29,31,33)

7 Greenwood "B" (35–38)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              1.5
3.0
2.0
3.0
2.0
1.0
0.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        8.5
10.0
5.0
5.0
4.0
4.0
2.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    12.5
10.0
8.0
7.0
7.0
5.0
2.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Standings
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              15.5
12.5
10.0
9.5
8.5
8.0
3.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        18.0
15.0
12.5
11.0
10.5
10.0
3.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Team

Hebrew Academy (1,18,16,19) 3.0

2 Pulaski Middle (4,6,9,15) 3.0

3 Homestad "A" (10-12,17) 4.0

4 Cumberland "A" (10-12,17) 4.0

5 Homestad "B" (18,21,22,27) 3.0

6 Cumberland "B" (18,21,2,27) 3.0

6 Cumberland "B" (31-33,36) 0.0

7 Cumberland "C" (31-33,36) 0.0

8 Cumbenland "D" (37-30) 0.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       6.0
5.0
6.0
6.0
4.0
2.0
2.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 9.0
7.5
8.0
8.0
6.0
4.0
4.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    11.0
10.5
11.0
10.0
6.0
7.0
5.0
2.0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         14.0
14.5
12.0
13.5
9.0
8.5
6.0
3.0
        Tournament Director: L. Thad Rogers
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   1979 CUMBERLAND SCHOLASTICS: JUNIOR HIGH
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  KNOXVILLE QUICK SWISS
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          1979 CUMBERLAND SCHC
1 Terry Burdett
2 Steve Robinson
4 Michael Kerley
5 William H Gwin
6 Bruce England
7 Scott Turner
8 Bobby Mayfield
9 Gregory K Robbins
10 Bruce L Lemieux
11 Steven D Sabine
12 Michael W Reagan
13 Gary Stockslager
14 Perry D Traw
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   766
858
691
569
837
889
665
524
667
700
524
692
503
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         W12
W10
D7
L6
W8
W4
D3
L5
L11
L2
W9
L1
W14
L13
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          W5
W11
W10
W14
L1
W13
W8
L7
W12
L3
L2
L9
L6
L4
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        W7
W6
W5
W11
L3
L2
L1
W14
W13
W12
L4
L10
L9
L8
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      W2
L1
W6
W9
W7
L3
L5
W11
L4
W14
L8
Bye
---
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           W3
D4
L1
D2
W10
D8
W9
D6
L7
L5
D12
D11
---
Bye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               5.0
3.5
3.5
3.5
3.0
2.5
2.5
2.0
2.0
1.5
1.0
                                                                       Twelve players turned out for this 3-SS, six per section event, played April 21 at the UT Student Center. Frank Larimer directed.
                                                                                                           Section One
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         RTG
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                BD 1 RD 2 RD 3 Sotel
                                                          1. Emanuel Tsitseklis
2. Richard Carpenter
3. Richard Igou
4. Terry Liptak
5. Larry Crawford
6. Mark Derrick
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    W5 W4 D3
W6 L3 W5
L4 W2 D1
W3 L1 Bye
L1 W6 L2
L2 L5 --
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              2 1/2
2
1 1/2
1
0
                                                                                                                             Section Two
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          13 Gary Stockslager
14 Parry D Traw
1979 CUMBERLAND SCH
1 Johnny S Camillari
2 Chuck H Lovingod
3 Keith D Threet
4 D. Travits Wyatt
5 Toy E Ecker
7 George O Wallace
8 Trey Medows
9 Timothy W Sexton
10 Stacy W Pugh
11 Perry Sarantopoulos
12 John A Roberson
10 David C Lawrence
14 David C Lawrence
15 John L Tuttle
16 Mike Mitchell
17 Michael D Wilsiannt
18 Wade B Bolin
18 Richard Jones
20 Susie Smathers
20 Susie Smathers
20 Susie Smathers
20 Sisse Lowe
23 Rick Bertram
24 Jim Bertram
25 Jeff Smathers
25 Fredda M Weaver
27 Michelle R Collard
26 Goorg M Collard
27 Goorge M Weaver
28 George M Collard
29 George M Collard
1979 CUMBERLAND SCI
                                                                                                  Louis Groeniger
Charles Vaughan
Evan Al-Chokhachy
Cary Long
Chester Crowley
Russell Moneymaker
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                1211
UNR
1292
UNR
UNR
UNR
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 L13 L4

ELEMENTARY
W11 W26
W14 W20
W18 W16
W19 W9
L7 W27
W5 W25
L3 W13
W22 L4
L25 W15
L18 W22
L18 W22
L18 W22
L18 W23
W14 L25 U5
L19 W21
L19 W21
L25 U5
L10 W21
L25 U5
L10 W21
L25 U5
L10 W22
L26 U5
L27 W23
L27 W21
L28 U5
L28 U5
L3 U5
L3 U5
L4 W24
L5 U5

                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                W6 W5 W3
W5 D3 W4
W4 D2 L1
L3 W6 L2
L2 L1 W6
L1 L4 L5
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ASTICS-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   546
579
23
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        W4
W6
W16
L1
D17
L2
L8
W7
W14
W20
W21
W25
L24
L9
L9
W26
L10
L11
L18
W29
W13
W12
L19
W28
L19
W28
L12
L19
W28
L12
L19
W28
L12
L23
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  C. Mussell Monoyanker

KING COTTON OPEN - MEB

Missell Monoyanker

1 Applieberry, M.
2 Applieberry, M.
2 Applieberry, M.
3 Floard, Sid
4 Pylant, G.
7 Boyd, Jeroy
8 Horlt, John P.
9 Boyd, Jeroy
9 Boyd, Jeroy
10 Mright, J. A.
10 Stoy, Ed.
11 Brown, Leroy
12 Mitchell, James
11 Brown, Leroy
12 Mitchell, James
14 Harrison, Graf
16 Hawkes, D. R.
17 Harrison, Graf
19 Gallagher, J. J.
20 Cope, R. W.
21 Dangeau, G. M.
Scott, G. E.
40 Stoyt, M. L.
26 Busty, M. L.
27 Ios. Jert tor
27 Ios. Jert tor
27 Ios. Jert tor
28 Murris, Billy
90 Garrett, Broderick
90 Gallady, Jerry L.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   0
185
238
0
263
238
0
57
93
0
99
108
551
113
185
237
117
152
0
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Rtg.
2234
1868
1817
1735
1948
1704 1853
unr.
1044
1573
1367
1194
1194
1198
1406
1329
1201
1472
1197
11000 new W21
W21
W20
L18
W73
W23
W23
W25
W29
D19
W29
D16
L28
L10
L11
L11
L12
L12
L13
L13
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      W8 W10 W5 W19 W14 D14 W21 L21 L24 W13 W18 L15 L12 L42 W27 L15 L22 L22 L22 L24
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19 20
21
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        1979 CUMBERLAND SCHOLASTICS: HIGH SCHOOL --
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   TDs: John L. White and Harry D. Sabine
```

JUNE 15 - OCTOBER 15, 1979

JUN 23-24

VANDERBILT SUMMER OPEN (A Grand Prix Tournament) 5-SS, 50/2, Branscomb Rec. Room, Branscomb Quadrangle, Vanderbilt Univ., Nashville, TN 37205. EF: $15, TCA mem. ($4) req. of all TN residents. $$430 guaranteed: 125-75-50, B,C,D, E/UNR each 45. Reg: 8-9:15 AM 6/23. Rds: 9:30-2-7, 9-2. For more info contact: Dave Thistlethwaite, 4641 Tara Dr., Nashville, TN 37215.

JUL 21

ETSU SUMMER AMATEUR (Class B and below), 3-SS, 45/90, D.P. Culp University Center, ETSU, Johnson City, TN 37601. EF: $8, TCA mem. ($4) req. of all TN residents. $$ (based on 20): 70-30-15, 1000-1199: 15, below 1000: 10. Reg: 9:30-10 AM 7/21. Rds: 10-1:30-4:30. For more info contact: John Nichols, 825 W. Maple St., Johnson City, TN 37601 (926-1705).

JUL 21-22

MUSIC CITY SUMMER (Details are presumed to be the same as those of the Music City Spring -- Ed.) 5-SS, 50/2, Admiral Benbow Inn, 823 Murfreesboro Rd., Nashville, TN 37217. EF: $15, TCA mem. ($4), req. of all TN residents. $$ (based on 30): 100-50-25, B,C,D,E/UNR each 15-25 (2nd if 5/class), trophy to 1st. Reg: 8-9 AM 7/21. Rds: 9:30-2-7, 9-2. For further info contact: Music City Chess Assoc., 303 Belinda Dr., Hermitage, TN 37076.

SEP 1-3

34th TENNESSEE OPEN (A Grand Prix Tournament), 6-SS, 50/2, Ramada Inn, 840 James Robertson Pkwy, Nashville, TN 37200. In three sections: Open, Amateur (below 1600), and Novice (below 1200), EF: $25-20-15 respectively, TCA mem. ($4) req. of all Ti residents. $$1500 guaranteed. Full details in August issue of TCN. For further info contact: Harry Sabine, PO Box 381, Crossville, TN 38555 (615-484-9593 or 615-484-4878).

SEP 22

CUMBERLAND COUNTY FALL OPEN, 4-SS, 40/1, Martin Junior High School, Stanley St., Crossville, TN 38555. EF: $6, TCA mem. ($4) req. of all TN residents. $$ (based on 30): 50, C 25, D 25, UNR 15, Top 1000-1199 25, Top below 1000 25; optional trophies available. Reg: 7:30-8:45 AM 9/22. Rds: 9-11:30-2:30-5:30. For further info contact: Harry Sabine, PO Box 381, Crossville,TN, 38555.

TENNESSEE CHESS ASSOCIATION, INC.
John D. Nichols, Editor
Tennessee Chess News
825 W. Maple St.
Johnson City, TN 37601
Ronald E

Ronald Burnett 1106 Omahundro Nashville TN 37210 NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION
U. S. POSTAGE PAID
KINGSPORT, TENNESSEE
PERMIT NO. 321

©2018 Tennessee Chess Association | 2911 Belmont Blvd.

Web Version

Forward

Unsubscribe

GoDaddy Email Marketing ®