Oh No, Transpositions!

Beginners, quite understandably, are often overwhelmed by the opening transpositions that occur during their games. I have many times a youngster say "I played the Sicilian but he played a King's Indian Attack", or similar statements. The point to remember is that the first couple of moves do not necessarily determine the classification of an opening. The player must be aware that his opponent has equal opportunity to steer the game into his preferred channels. I cannot possibly cover all the opening transpositions in an article, but I can give you some notion of how prevalent they are. After you become familiar with most of the early transpositions then you can really get to work on the transpositions of eight to ten moves deep. Often enough by that time, the opening classification will be set, but the specific variation will remain variable. A simple case of this occurs after the usual move order: 1 e4 c5 2 Nf3 Nc6 3 d4 cxd 4 Nxd4 Nf6 5 Nc3 e5 6 Nb5 d6 7 Bg5. Often, the same position is reached with each side one tempo down! Thus: 1 e4 c5 2 Nf3 e6 3 d4 cxd 4 Nd4 Nf6 5 Nc3 Nc6 6 Nb5 d6 7 Bf4 e5 8 Bg5. I will give a few examples of opening transpositions here. Note--an opening is named according to what it turns out to be in the game; so you may start with the Queen's Gambit and wind up in a Stonewall Dutch-it would be called a Stonewall though that may not have been your original intentions.

- A. A player who plays the Center Counter defense will need to always be prepared to play the black side of a Caro-Kann defense, Panov Attack variation. 1 e4 d5 2 exd Nf6 3 c4 c6 4 d4 (current theory holds, and I agree, to take a second pawn is positionally a disaster) 4. . . cxd becomes a Panov Attack.
- B. Just the same, a Benoni player should be ready to play the black side of a Caro-Kann. 1 d4 Nf6 2 c4 c5 3 e3 cxd 4 exd d5 is again a Panov.
- C. Pirc players beware if you don't like playing the King's Indian defense. Korchnoi once played as white 1 e4 d6 2 d4 Nf6 3 f3 g6 4 c4 Bg7 5 Nc3 and this gives a Samish King's Indiam.

- D. French players almost always have a wide choice of alternatives: 1 e4 e6 2 d4 c5 is a Franco-Sicilian. After 1 d4 e6 2 c4 Black has numerous possibilities, 2. . . d5 is a Queen's Gambit, 2. . . f5 is a Dutch, while 2. . . Nf6 still leaves possibilities like Nimzo-Indian and Queen's Indiam defenses as well as Modern Benoni set ups.
- E. Modern Defense players usually are well versed in the transpositions which usually arise as white chooses. 1 e4 g6 2. d4 Bg7 3 c4 is a Queen's Pawn type of opening, or 1 e4 g6 2 d4 Bg7 3 f4 is the sharp Austrian or hree awns ttack, a ling's Pawn opening.

Studying transpositions will give you more to play and a better eye as to what will be coming in your games.

Dateline Crossville -- On a recent weekend Curt Jones visited Crossville to play 53 boards simulataneously, lecture and to give a blindfold exhibition. Curt's record was 51 wins, 1 draw and 1 lost. The lost was to Chuck Lovingood, and the draw was with Travis Parham. Curt later regained his revenge against the promising Chuck Lovingood in the Blindfold Game(which follows).

DEFENSE

A PART OF CHESS

by Henry J. Robinson

If a player wishes to improve his playing strength he must learn that defense is part of chess. The single most important idea to be learned is to defend confidentify. If you are not sure that your defense is good, then you will most likely lose the game. Once you have studied the position calmly and objectively you should always move your piece with confidence. Never let a surprise move upset you for more than a minute or two. Don't reply quickly to any surprise move just to show your opponent that it didn't surprise you. Be calm, objective and confident.

The following defensive battle was fought during the 5th round of the Music City Winter Open. I hope it helps the reader understand further the value of confident defense.

White: Jerry Wheeler (1962) Black: Henry Robinson (2157)

1. e4 e6 2. d4 d5 3. Nd2 c5 4. ed5 ed5 5. Ngf3 c4 6. Be2 = Nbc6 7. 0-0 Bd6 8. Rel Nge7 9. Nfl Bf5 10. Ng3 Bg3 11. hg3 Nb4 12. Nh4 (This fine move was overlooked by me when playing my 9th move.) Bc2 13. Qd2 Nd3 14. Bd3 Bd3 15. Qb4! (Blacks pesition looks critical. At first I thought I was lost, then I calmed down, studied the position objectively and confidently replied) 15... f6! 16. Bf4 Kf7 17. Bd6 (As so often happens the attacker slightly overextends himself. Better seems 17. Qb7 Re8 with apparent equality.) 17... Re8! 18. Re3 (Now Black repules the attacking pieces with the confidence that he will win the endgame.) 18... a5! 19. Qc5 b6! 20. Qa3 (20. Re7 Re7 21. Qd5 Re6 was the last chance for a serious initiative, though Black should easily repulsethe attack.) 20... Nc8 21. Re8 Qe8 22. Bb4 Ra7 23. Bd2 Qe7 24. Qa4 Qd7 25. Qd1!(White is headed for the King's side; so, Black must again defend for a few moves. Here, I dreamed-up the proper defensive formation and confidently played.) 25... Kg8!! 26. Qh5 Qf7 27. Qg4 Qd7 28. Qh5 g5!! 29. Re1 Ne7 30. Nf3 Bg6 31. Qh1 Nf5 32. Bc3 Ra8 33. Kh2! Nd6 34. Re3 Ne4 35. Qel Re8 36.

Kg1 Kf7 37. Nh2?! (This is a very important psycological moment. White's resistance from here on weakens noticably.) 37... Nc3 38. Qc3 Re3 39. Qe3 Qa4 40. Qf3 Be4! 41. Qh5 Ke7! 42. Qe2 Qc2 43. Qc2 Bc2 44. Kf1?! (44. Ng4 would have given white some chance to hold.) 44... h5! 45. g4?! h4 46. Ke1 Bd3!!! 47. Kd2 (On 47. Nf1 Bf1 wins or 47. Nf3 Be4!! 48. Ne1 Bg2!! wins.) 47... b5 48. Nf3 Be4!! 49. Nh2 Bg2!! 50. f3

A most unusual endgame; The two pieces trap each other. Black now won easily by advancing his extra Queen side pawn (The minor pieces never moving again.).

REMEMBER: CONFIDENCE is the key to defense.

BOOK REVIEW:

CHESS BATTLE STRATEGIES by John Love & John Hodgkins (published by Sterling Publishing Co., Inc., Two Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016) carefully carries the novice player thru the basic winning tactical maneuvers and strategy to victory. Each chapter is thought out presenting an orderly insight to the tactical points (the center, battle stations, pins, forks, checks add discovered checks, ect...). Every Novice player should read and review the sections "Simple Mates" and "Pawn Promotion". Each chapter has an especially useful summary (possibly an outline for chess instruction). book is written in discriptive notation (the FIDE changes to algebraic notation in 1981). I recommend this book to all Tennessee players. John L. White

LETTERS:

Dear Editor: (Feb. 21)

The Tennessee Prison Chess Association would like to bring to the attention of chess players everywhere, and particularly Tennessee, that chess in the Tennessee prison system is generally unknown. Presently we are in the process of trying to establish ourselves in Tennessee by organing, promoting, and conducting chess in all fifteen adult penal institutions.

We plan to have "rated tournaments" with the help of some of our non-incarcerated chess playing friends. Peter Lahde and Harry Sabine are two gentleman who have encouraged and supported our efforts.

Judy Misner and Helen Warren at the Uni United States Chess Federation have contributed to our association greatly by donating entries to Postal Chess Tournament ten regular U.S.C.F. memberships and three chess sets.

Our association is also in the process of making arrangements to get a grandmaster to conduct a simultaneous exhibition at the main prison here in Nashville. Curt Jones has an open invitation to meet with our association at his convenience.

We hope that this letter will fall upon the eyes of chess players everywhere and stimulate them to contact us. Our thanks is extended to all for their concern, consideration and participation.

Sincerely Yours,
Daniel Gray

Editor: (Feb. 11)

I just received your Feb-Mar 80 copy of "TENNESSEE CHESS NEWS" and find it just as well if not better in reporting state news about past events and future tournaments than other magazines I receive by mail. I play in Tennessee about once or twice a year on a business trip or vacation, and always look to see when there will be a weekend tournament.

It's been a year since I was last in Nashville and a lot of the players in last week's tournament (Music City Winter) still remembered me and asked about Chicago's chess clubs and events up here like the U.S. Open.

I hope some of the players come to Chicago for their vacation and play in a weekend tournament if they ne looking for a place to go. There's a tournament every month and many things to see around town between rounds and after the last round.

Thanks to everyone who greeted me and to Mr. Lahde for a fine job as tournament director. Hope to see everyone again.

Sincerely,
Ron Raith

SARGON 2.5

by Leon Stancliff

Just before Christmas I traded my Boris Master in on one of the new Sargon 2.5 Modular Game Systems. I have now had the opportunity to do some research on the unit and am sending you the results of my investigations.

It is my opinion that the new Sargon 2.5 will play even with the average tournament player in Tennessee, and do it within the fifty moves in two hours time limit. It will get into time trouble on occasion, but no more often than the human player in my estimation. It is at least fifteen times faster than my old Boris Master unit.

Following are some data on four game matches at each of Sargon's first four playing levels. My score is listed first.

		Ave.	My
Level	Score	No.Moves	Ave. Time	Sargon's
0	40	22	42 min.	2 min.
1	31	52	115 min.	6 min.
2	2.5-1.5	34	65 min.	8 min.
3	13	32	53 min.	13 min.

I played one game at level 4. Sargon won in 37 moves, utilizing 1 hour and 44 minutes on the clock. Though the win for Sargon was obvious I played on to 50 moves to see if it could complete the 50 moves in 2 hours. It did! As the board cleared it moved more rapidly.

The Chafitz company claims Sargon 2.5 (This program) achieved a performance rating of over 1600 in a California tournament playing at level 4. I must admit it intimidated me at level 4!

(Three typical games at various levels are included in the games section.)

College Chess

In America

by David W. Chu, Pres. 1CLA 6-C Hogan Hall c/o Carman Hall Columbia University New York, N.Y. 10027 (212) 662-9254

In order for future growth to occur in chess across the country. it is necessary that a strong base for such growth be laid among the young today. People who become interested in chess while in college usually retain that interest throughout their lives. Therefore, a stimulation of interest and participation in chess among those 18 to 25 years old, the vast majority of whom attend a college, university, or two-year community college, is a key prerequisite for a growing chess community and a prosperous USCF in the years to come. The principal role to be played in this endeavor is by the local college

Seven years of experience in college chess has shown me, however, that routine college chess club activities are insufficient to maintain high levels of interest and participation among college students. What college chess needs are more competitive matches with other schools. Such matches attract great interest amoung students and are a source of good publicity for chess since they highlight the already intense traditional rivalries amoung colleges. Naturally schools would like to participate in the prestigious national, regional, and state intercollegiate championships. Structural constraints, such as lack of money and time, limit the activity of college chess clubs to local matches for the most part.

The Intercollegiate Chess Leage of America (ICLA) can't hope to man-age such local activity nationwide. As a national organization, the ICLA functions best at its own level; namely in organizing the two national championships: the Pan American Intercollegiate Team Championship and the Individual Intercollegiate Championship. The organization of local matches is best done at the grass-roots level, i.e. by the schools them selves. This does not mean that the roots level, i.e. by the schools them selves. This does not mean that the IGLA can't perform a useful function in helping local organizers or in initiating new programs. The IGLA is not a one-dimensional organization. We are planning a variety of programs with which to start the new decade of the 1980's.

A NEW AGENDA FOR THE *80s

In order to aid colleges organize matches with other schools, the ICIA plans to create a College Chess Club Directory. The Directory will provide a list of colleges, the current name, address and phone number of the contact person for each club, and other relevant data such as meeting times, the number of boards a club can provide for a match, ect. This information will greatly facilitate local college organizers in arranging matches with nearby schools.

Because of the prohibitive distance be ween most schools such a directory will have limited use; Therefore, the ICLA intends to establish a new program of nationwide radio chess matches between schools. Nearly every college has a ham radio station. In cooperation with these radio clubs, matches can be played quite easily with other schools across the state and even across the nation. Schools interested in this program will have a special listing in our Directory to indicate this.

The primary function of the ICLA is to serve the interests of college chess. We believe that this is done best by promulgating interschool chess matches at the local level. But we need your cooperation! I therefore ask every college student, professor and administrator reading this article to urge your college chess club, whether or not it is an ICLA affiliate to contact me at my address below in order to participate in our programs and to be listed in our Directory. 1 also ask that every college alumnus contact your former college chess club to indicate your desire that they part icipate in our programs. Your state has a number of colleges, universities and community colleges. By strengthen ing college chess in your state today, you will be helping in a positive way to strengthen chess in your state and the nation in the years to come.

Please forward any inquires.

KINGSPORT: CHESS WAR V

We hosted our second largest chess tournament in recent weeks as 56 happy warriors "thought it out" in Chess War V. The large turnout combined with a strong open section made this the best of the Chess Wars since their beginning in 1977.

In the Open, Charles Phillips (NC) repeated his performance of Chess War III when he took top honors. Finishing tied for second were Leonard Dickerson (Knox) and Expert Bill Bickham (NC). Bill is playing Board 27 for the N.S. Postal Team against the Russians in an international postal match.

In the Booster Section, 16 of the 24 entries were from Crossville. However, Bill Kelly, Alan Buchanan and Tony Ross, all of Kingsport, used the "home court advantage" to win the top three places. Bill and Alan had perfect 3-0 records and Tony had 2½.

In the non-rated section, Mark Lee mated his way to first place. Second was shared by Jimmy Sims and Bob Oyler. The Dobyns-Bennett A team won the team trophy.

Barry Pope and Jim Sims were TD's.

MEMPHIS: Pillsbury Incentive III

One master and nine A players head an 18 player field in the Pillsbury Incentive III, February 23. Marty Appleberry (2217) took first prize and $70 with a 2½-½ score, drawing with Kenny Thomas (1959) in the last round.

Thomas tied for second with 2-1, along with Scott Smith, Ron Minor, William McClain, Eddie Middleton, Kurt Eschbach, Sid Pickard and Leroy Boyd.

Playing in his first tournament was 10-year old John Muffman, a product of the Pillsbury Chess Club weekly chess lessons. John went 0-3 in this tournament but showed much promise and is sure to be a dangerous competitor in the future.

The tournament brought out 1 new USON member and 8 new PCA members. creported by Kenny Thomas)

Knowille Quick Swiss: A swarm of chess players descended on Knowille Mar 15 as 42 players entered the open section and an additional IS local Junior High Players signed up for an unrated section. The competition was fierce with only one game being drawn (that one "peacefull" draw was decided in time pressure!).

fied for first:

Billy McKinney (Clembornia, Mo) Albert Ruchmann (Knosville) Frate Varner (Lenoir City) Leonard Dickerson (Knosville) Funnanuel Tsitseklis (Knosville) In the unrated section Chris Chambers of Farragut Middle School captured the first place trophy. (Rick Igou)

Postal Rules: As the rules state, you may use any printed material for assistance, game score or opening play; But an opinion from a third party is not permitted— this would include the modern day IC chess-playing machines. Play your postal game by yourself, then analyze your game with the computer to see if it can play as well as you did!

Challenge Matches: Challenge matches are rated postal games between a pre-arranged or challenged opponent. Any number of games may be agreed on, usually in groups of two, where you play one game as White and the other as Black. The opening and even the variation may be designated.

The fee for this type of match will be 25¢ per game per player. Play will comply with normal postal chess rules, except that more replying time may be added when more than two games are being played. All you need do is (1) to set yp your match and notify the postal director of the arrangements, enclosing the required fee; or (2) if it's a challenge, just send your match format with its requirements and I will offer it in this section.
