

This issue is dedicated to the memory of Ron Seaney, 2015 TN Primary Team Coach of the Year, who passed away unexpectedly in April 2015. The Middle Tennessee chess community lost a great man, a friend, a teacher, a coach, and a chess player. His legacy will be remembered by his students and colleagues for generations to come.

The next TCA and affiliates events will be the 2015 Tennessee Chess Senior Open in Crossville on May 15, 2015 and the 2015 Rea Hayes Open Chess Tournament in Chattanooga on June 6, 2015. Flyers for these events are attached. For more details and registration for these events click here.

Congratulations to all the girls who participated in this year's All-Girls Chess Championship held at the Nashville Chess Center on February 21, 2015. The winners were Zsofia DeCredico, K-12 and Esha Karam, K-6. Thanks to all the parents and coaches who were willing to brave the icy weather to support girls in Tennessee chess!
