U.S. Junior Open to be held in Crossville!

The 35th U.S. Junior Open Chess Championship will be held June 24-28, 1982 in Crossville, Tennessee, at Martin Junior High School. It will be open to all chess players under the age of 21.

The eight-round Swiss will be directed by USCF National Tournament Director Harry Sabine of Crossville. Sabine also chairs the local organizing committee. The event will be co-sponsored by the U.S. Chess Federation and its affiliate, the Cumberland County Chess Association.

The top finishers in the 1982 Junior Open will share $1,000 in scholarships. Additionally, the top three will receive free entries in August's 1982 U.S. Open in St. Paul, in Minnesota.

Features of the 1982 Junior Open will include a fine playing site, reduced rates at the Capri Motel in Crossville, and some sleeping bag accommodations for participants. An added attraction for those traveling to the tournament will be the 1982 World's Fair in Knoxville, about an hour's drive from Crossville.

The 1981 U.S. Junior Open was held in Abington, Pennsylvania, and was jointly won by David Greigo 17, of Rhode Island, Moshe Khatena, 19, of Mississippi, and Andrew Lerner, 15, of New Jersey. Over the years tht Junior Open has been a testing ground for America's top young players.

For further details contact Harry Sabine at p.o. Box 381, Crossville, Tennessee, 38555 or the U.S. Chess Federation.

Long Time No See

Michael Coveyou, former Tenn. chess player from Oak Ridge, writes from Des Moines, Iowa, where he is Research and Stat. Manager of the Iowa Dept. of Public Safety, that he is active in Iowa chess circles.

He is Secretary-Treasurer of the Des Moines Chess Club and Treasurer of the Iowa State Chess Association (and publisher of their state newsletter , Iowa Chess News En Passant). Mike has been directing many Iowa tournaments during the past three years, and has been able to play in a few, too.

His current rating (1856) is comparable to his highest rating during his school days, when he was once Tenn. Amateur Champion (1964).

He sent the following game played against an expert in the recent Iowa Open at Labor Day. Mike says that the game is not an artistic success, but that the lesson illustrated is one he learned from his father, nine-time Tennessee Champion, Bob Coveyou of Oak Ridge. The lesson os don't give up (well, almost never)!!

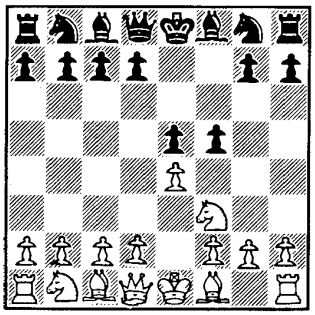
The Latvian Lives! by Sid Pickard



Recently in Memphis there has been a resurrection of the old (and sound!) Latvian Gambit. Several of the city's more adventurous players have taken up the black side of this counterattack, and with good results. Rick Herbers, Scott Smith, Mike Barton, and others have scored exciting victories with the Latvian, experimenting along the way with an amazing variety of variations and subsystems. Here is a brief survey of the games being played by these Memphian gambiteers, with the hope that the Latvian may become even more popular.

First of all, to encourage the timid, it is comforting to note that even should Black make an inferior move he is not yet lost. C. Niggel(1950)-S. Smith (2074) Ark. Pro-Am March 81. 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 f5 3. d4 fe 4. Ne5 Nf6 5. Bg5 d6 6. Nc3 de? (6...Be7 is safe, and White must retreat his knight. But Scott, with the faith of a child, bags the piece). 7. de Qdl+ 8.Rdl Bg4 9. Nb5? Bdl 10. The following game also shows inaccurate play by black, who nevertheless escapes unscathed.

Shakron(2205)-Pickard(2030) Southern Congress 1981 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 f5 3. Bc4 fe 4. Ne5 Qg5 5. Bf7+ Kd8? (after 5... Ke7 White is embarrassed), 6. Bg8 Qg2 7. Nf7+ Ke8 8. Nh8 Qh1 9. Ke2 Qf3+ and drawn by perpetual check. Finally, an example of Black keeping the position complex after a bad opening. Kogan(2196)-S.Smith (2074) Georgia Open 1981 1.e4 e5 2. Nf3 f5 3. Ne5 Qf6 4. d4 d6 5. Nc4 fe 6. Nc3 Qg6 7. Ne3 Nf6 8. Be2 c6 9. d5 c5(9...Be7 ,10...0-0) 10. 0-0 Be7 11. Khl 0-0 12. Nb5 Nbd7 13. Nc4 Ne8 14. Bh5 Qf6 15. Be8 Ne5 16. Ne5 Qe5 17. Bh5 Bd7 18. Nc3 b5 19. In actual fact, however, it is more likely that White will be the one who goes wrong, and Black should respond in the true spirit of the Latvian Gambit by sacrificing a piece. R.Harvey (2010)-Pickard(1998) Ivory Pawn 1980. 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 f5 3. ef e4 4. Ne5 Nf6 5. d4(White should play 5. Be2 and 6. Bh5+ with a tough game ahead), d6 6. Nc4 Bf5 7. It is fortunate, then, that Black can sidestep the above complications on his fourth move and, at the cost of a mere exchange and some pawns, dominate the board. It would be unfair, however, to leave the reader thinking that Black wins every Latvian Gambit, for the sad truth is that he does from time to time face defeat. MUSIC CITY FALL
Less losses = Moore wins

Johnson Moore, the highest rated player with 2070 performed according to expectations, and won with a score of 5-0 the Music City Fall tourney. He took home first place money and trophy.

Three players tied for second with 4-1 scores. They were: Dusan Tutush(1999), Tony Estes (1830), and Ronald Burnett(1851) They divided second and third place money plus 1st Cat. prize money that was added.

John W. Moore won the Cat.II prize with 3½ points. These players: James Huskey, Marvin Hayami, Lewis Inman, and Gary Brennaman divided second place money.

Cat. III prize money with 3-2 scores was divided by Rod Patterson(1598) and Shuji Miyabe(1501). Patterson scored two big upsets in the first two rounds by beating M.C. Wright (2012) and then Ronald Burnett (1851).

There also was a tie for Cat. IV with Thomas Baker and Michael White.

With twenty -four players the attendance was disappointing. Nevertheless, it was one of the smoothest running events without one complaint. Peter Lahde directed.

Jones Breezes Thru Tornado!

James Jones(1897) with a perfect 4-0 score won the Mrs. Gallagher's Tornado. He played well above his rating by beating Ron Minor(2006), Rick Herbers (2084), and former 1980 State Champ Kenny Thomas(2158). After the smoke cleared, Jones emerged as a new Candidate Master--2003, which gave Memphis a total of 17 experts!!(look out, Nashville next time in our match).

OPEN BRILLIANCY PRIZE! TN OPEN

notes by Grandmaster Samuel Reshevsky

The 1981 Tenn. Open Brilliancy Prize between Dennis Gogel and Mike Carey (2204 after the event !) is annotated by one of the best chessplayers of this century. He is featured in this month's Chess Life. His books include: Reshevsky Teaches Chess, Great Chess Upsets, How Chess Games Are Won, and The Art of Positional Play.

Gogel(2334) - Carey(2080)

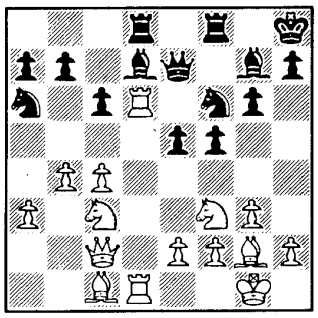
1. c4	f5
2. Nc3	Nf6
3. d4	g6
4. Nf3	Bg7
5. g3	d6
6. Bg2	0-0
7. 0-0	c6
8. Qc2	...

Better is 8. Rel, intending e4.

8. ...	Na6
9. Rd1	Kh8
10. a3	...

Preferable is 10. Rb1.

10.	Bd7
11. b4	Qe8
12. Bb2	e5
13. de5	de5
14. Rd6	Qe7
15. Rad1	Rad8
16. Bc1	...



This move does not fit White's set-up. He should have continued 16. Qd2, tying up Black's queen rook and queen bishop, followed by 17. Na4 if Black plays 16...Nc7.

16. ...	Nc7
17. Be3	b6
18. Qd2?	...

Necessary was either 18. Qb3 in which 18...Ncd5 was not playable because White would win a pawn in addition to the two pieces for a rook, or 18. Ne5!? Qe5 19. Bc6 with complications.

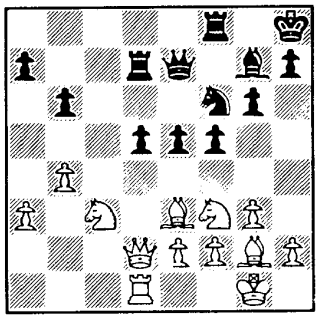
18. ...	Ncd5!

Interesting and sound sacrifice!

19. Rd7	...

If cd5 Qd6 20. Ne5 Qc7 with insufficient compensation for White.

19. ...	Rd7
20. cd5	cd5



Black's strong pawn formation in the center gives him a big plus.

21. Bg5	...

An alternative was 21. Bh6.

21. ...	d4
22. Nb1	...

The knight would have more use at a2 from where it could have gone to c1, covering the important square d3.

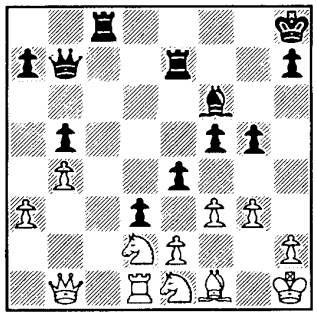
22. ...	Qe6
23. Bf6	Bf6
24. Qc2	Rfd8
25. Ne1	e4
26. Bf1	g5
27. f3	Re7
28. Ng2	b5
29. Nd2	Qb6
30. Kh1	Qb7!

A good move protecting the e-pawn and at the same time making it difficult for White to find a plausible move.

31. Ne1	...

Better was 31. Re1, preventing Black's next move.

31. ...	Rc8
32. Qb1	d3!



A decisive move, because if 33. ed3, then e3 and e2.

33. Nd3	ed3
34. Qd3	Qd7
35. Nb3	Qd3
36. Rd3	Rc3

FEATURE PLAYER
John Mark Ishee

John Mark Ishee of Brentwood, TN is a versatile chessplayer that is probably more known for the past years as a Nashvillian. Mark has a reputation as a "book player", because he not only reads and studies many chess books, but he also devotes his leisure hours for other topics as well. Mark feels that many authors who make fun of and degrade chess are not totally aware of the joys of chess. George Benard Shaw wrote that"Chess is a foolish expedient for making idle people believe they are doing something very clever, when they are only wasting their time," which Mark says"shows that even the most famous of intellects can be infamous for stupidity".

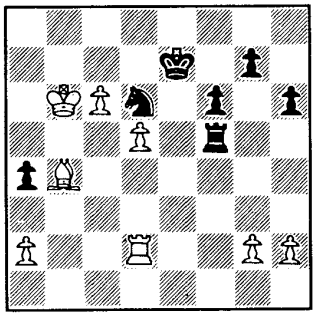
Ishee writes:"This wildness was played at 45/90. By move 22 both players were blitzing; I think I won because of the 'sacrificial shock' of my attack which with best play should have drawn-- thanks to White's resourceful 25th and 26th moves. Lest you think that I regularly beat Brian McCarthy, I should mention that our 4-game match this summer ended 2-2. White won every game!!".

mid-south next issue

Arthur Bisguier won the 22nd Mid-South Open in a field which included FIDE Master Calvin Blocker (2556), David Timberlake (2208) of Arkansas, twenty Candidate Masters, and twenty Cat. I players. Timberlake cleared second place with his last round victory over top-rated Blocker. Crosstables, games, and other features from the Mid-South will appear in the next TCN.

Battle Fatigue



In rd 4 of the TN OPEN, Amateur section, Matthew Doloff grabbed a pawn from Roy Clark on move 12. In a grueling battle white held the pawn until move 50,(time control). Clark's jabbing & feinting paid off when Doloff dropped his guard for an instant...

The brisk autumn day of the 5th Fairfield Glade Open found 138 Chess Warriors ready to do battle. With Ten Masters playing in the Open Section, Fairfield certainly was the strongest tournament in the Mid-Southern area in recent memory. Church's Grand Prix leaders Boris Kogan (Atlanta-2556) and Boris Baczynskyj (Philadelphia-2436 were the top rated Senior Masters. Filling out the Master list were Charles Maddigan (2382-TN), Klaus Pohl (2348 SC), John "Rusty" Potter (2321-VA), Sergy Berchenko (2307-OH), Curt Jones (2300-TN), Michael Lucas (2231 GA), Mark LaRocca (2225-OH), and the youngest Master ever, Stuart Rachels (2200-AL).

The first round went as might be expected with all the Masters winning. In the second round first Master blood was drawn when Curt Jones was held to a draw by Tony Magee (1925-NC).

The third round was the beginning of the show down, Master vs Master; with pistols and swords drawn the blood bath was set for dark. Berchenko and Kogan played to a draw. Maddigan lost to Lucas and withdrew. Klaus Pohl was surprised by Stuart Rachels. Mark LaRocca was overpowered by Boris Baczynskyj. And, Rusty Potter disposed of Canidate Master Albert Ruehmann.

The forth round found Stuart Rachels matched against Boris Baczynskyj; only to succomb to Boris's experience. Rusty Potter knockouted Lucas. Jones lost to Tennessee Postal Editor Kent Meadows (1893). And,, LaRocca was glued to a draw by Ron Easter (1890).

The 5th round; Playing for the Championship Rusty Potter found himself in serious time trouble which he could not over come. Boris Baczynskyj skillfully played to a perfect 5 point solo finish, taking home the first place $500 prize and Grand Prix points.

Tieing for 2nd at 4.5 points were Boris Kogan and Sergey Berchenko. Tieing for the Candidate Master prise were Albert Ruehmann and Brian Mc Carthy. Tieing for the 1st CAT I were James Hardy and Kent Meadows. Tieing for CAT II were Steve Choatie, Jack Jeffery, Bobby Chapuis and Bradley Watson.

The Amateur Section crowned three Co-Champions in Craig Haun (Chattanooga), Matt Cullins (Millington), and Mike Headrick (Maryville) with a 4.5 score. Category winners were CAT IV 1st Frank Egulf, 2nd James Hutchings, 3rd tie between Brian Smith and Tommy Cunningham.

In the Novice Section: Joseph Hinton and Herbert Silvers tied for first at 4.5. Top rated Hinton(1182) took home the first place prize, and Unrated Silvers took home the Unrated prize.

The tournament was smoothly run on time by National Director Harry Sabine; under the auspices of Cumberland County Chess Club President and Chess Promoter, Clinton Pearson. (reported by B. Walker)

Cumberland County Fall Open 1981

Richard Carpenter of Knoxville sweep the 1981 Cumberland County Fall Open, scoring a perfect four. Tieing for second at 3½ were M.C. Wright (Hermitage), Chuck Lovingood (Crossville), Gary Fok (Knoxville), Tom Farr (Hermitage), and Bradley Watson (Knoxville).

The CAT III prize was split five ways between Patrick Burdick, Jeff Smathers, Layne Shaw, Bruce Lemieux, and Jay Sabine; all scoring three. CAT IV was another five way split between Tom Bowers, Brian Smith, Jeremy Chin, Brian Anderson and Hilary Bowlby, all with two points.

The fall tournament attracted 71 players from East and Middle Tennessee and Kentucky. All entries minus rating fees were paid back for a prize fund well over $350. All rounds were efficiently on time with the usual skill of Crossville Chess Mentor Harry Sabine.

Belisvsky Wins Tilburg '81

Soviet Grandmaster Alexander Beliavsky added a major triumph to an already fine year by winning the 1981 Interpolis tournament in the Dutch city of Tilburg.

The following game should be helpful for Tennessee players who like the Sicilian Poison Pawn.
