Tennessee Chess News Mark Ishee, editor

Tennessee Chess News is the official bi-monthly publication of the Tennessee Chess Association. TCA annual dues (including subscriptions) are $4.00; however, those joining after April 1 each year pay $2.00 for membership expiring on August 31, or $5.00 for membership expiring on August 31 of the following year. Additional members of one family may join TCA for $5c each but will not receive the newsletter. Patron memberships of $25.00 per year are available for those who wish to support Tennessee chess. These memberships are good for one year from the first day of the month payment is received, and all Patron Members enjoy full privileges of TCA membership. Additionally, Patron Members receive TCN by first class mail and are recognized in each issue.

From the President

Happy New Year! Chess in Tennessee should have one. The rotation of the two major TCA events, the Turkey Tour, the new Editor were all designed to insure that 84 would be the best yet. We hope that they were good moves.

"Help your pieces, and they'll help you," and so it goes. TCA and all Tennessee organizers have tried to "help our pieces," now all you Knights, Bishops, Kings, Queens (even you, Rooks), and all the pawns, need to help chess!

Nothing new here, just being alone a new player. When you meet a beginner don't scoff at his attempts. Soothing him, newcomers away, and if not you may be wiped off the board for your trouble later on.

The Tennessee Open drew over 100 as did the Mid-South Open and Fairfield Glade. Thanks to all of you who participated, condolences to those who missed out of our "Big Three." The new magazine looks better than ever, and the deadline is being attacked. Editor's note: All forthcoming issues of TCN should be back on schedule. If you haven't received your December-January issue, please contact me.

If you have a great idea for chess, let it to one of TCA's officers for consideration. If you'd really like to help chess survive the video computer age, volunteer to teach coach a school team. You don't have to be any particular strength, just available a couple of hours a week. It's one way to make the history books. You could start the new Fischer on his way!

Chess is our association. It gives us pleasure and companionship. Give some thing back. Direct a tournament. Have a simultaneous (you can do it!). Coach a team. Encourage a beginner. Participate. Send your games to TCN. Teach a buddy the game. Become a Patron member of TCA. Enter a tournament. Help clean up after your club meeting. Run for the Board of your club. Shake your opponent's hand, before and after a game, win or lose. You're never too good to help. Kavalek, Bisguier, and others direct tournaments. Spassky helped set up the boards for a tournament in Canada. Fure and Olafsson headed HIDEI, and never too weak. There's always someone weaker, newer, that you can help (and beat), so make a move for chess in 84. More in 84!

Jack Smith, TCA President

Memphis Crown Up for Grabs

The Memphis Candidates Tournament determined the eight players to compete in the Round Robin format Memphis City Championship after 5 rounds of scampering knights and defrocked bishops. Sid (dub kid) Pickard-4 pts, James Jones-4 pts, James (from Jim) Wright-3½, Kenny Thomas-3½, Mahlon (Scott) Smith-3½, Jack Smith-3½, Gary Newsom-3½, and Rick (Rook) Herbers-3, all qualified to see who would take the crown from Greg (6-0) Howd, who is out of town until April and cannot defend his title. It's a worthy bunch, including three Tennessee Open Champs and three City title holders, as well as two newcomers, Jones and Newsom. Once again the rigorous trial eliminated some of the ratings favorites, with Leroy Boyd and Randy Cope, both 2100 players, having to settle for the reserve section. Noteworthy results were Jones' return to form, and Wranowicz's 3 pts, but for tie-breakers, a qualifying result! Pickard, (pronounced p-card, not pik-ard, although no one does it right), is planning to add the City title to his State Championship Laurels, and everyone else is planning to pick his pocket.

USCF Affiliates needing TCA membership cards should contact Harry Sabine, TCA Secretary-Treasurer. All TCA dues and changes of address (please include zip code) should also be sent to Harry Sabine.

TCA Patron Members:

TCN Offers Cash Prizes

In order to improve the quality of the games and articles submitted to this magazine, TCN is offering a cash incentive for the best article, annotated game, story, book review, or theoretical article submitted during the remainder of this calendar year. All classes of players are encouraged to submit material since there will be two prizes of $25 each, one for those rated above 1800 and one for those rated below 1800. More than one entry may be submitted, and all entries become the property of TCN to be used for publication. Winners will be announced at the 1984 Tennessee Open. Please send all entries to Mark Ishee, TCN Editor.

1983 CROSSVILLE SCHOLASTICS

Once again records fell as 390 enthusiastic young chess players gathered in Crossville, Tennessee, for the 1983 Crossville Scholastics. The tournament was the largest of any kind ever held in Tennessee and was one of the largest ever held in the South.

Forty-six teams and individuals representing 63 different schools competed for the 95 trophies and $500 in cash prizes awarded.

The 124-man High School Section was won by Curtis Heuchli of Evanston Township High School, Evanston, Illinois, with a perfect 6-0 score. Tracy Callis and Chris Bushong of Pulaski County High School, Pulaski, Virginia, Joe Kennedy of Northrup High School, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and Brian Budz of Forest Hill High School, Jackson, Mississippi, all tied for 2nd thru 5th place with scores of 5-1. Pulaski County repeated as team champion with 19 points, followed by Evanston High School of Evanston, Illinois, with 18 points, and Cumberland County High School of Crossville, Tennessee, with 17.

The 107-player Elementary Section found four young players tied for 1st with scores of 5-1: Alex Chang and his sister, Angela Chang of Cherry River Elementary in Richmond, West Virginia, and Jeff Shelton and Noah Spaulding of Pulaski Middle School, Pulaski, Virginia, all were declared co-champions.

Fifth thru 9th places went to Frank Voikers of Lost Creek Elementary in Terre Haute, Indiana, Chris Lax of Homestead Elementary, Crossville, Tennessee, Donald Schillon and Sujiet Metha of Ouabache Elementary in Terre Haute, Indiana, and Jason Balogh of Auburndale School of Cordova, Tennessee. Pulaski Middle School of Pulaski, Virginia, won the team honors with 19½ points, edging out defending champion, Cherry River Elementary of Richmond, West Virginia, who had 18½ points. Third place in the team competition went to Auburndale School of Cordova, Tennessee, with 18 points.

Oliver Tai of Auburndale School, Cordova, Tennessee, captured 1st place outright in the Primary Section with a score of 4½-½. He was closely followed by Jason White of Homestead School, Crossville, Tennessee, Amanda Fobom of Northwood Elementary, Pulaski, Virginia, Jeremy Chason of Chapshaw Elementary, Cookeville, Tennessee, and Shimbukuro of Linden Elementary, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, with scores of 4-1. In the Primary Team competition Northwood Elementary of Pulaski, Virginia, and Auburndale School of Cordova, Tennessee, were co-champions each with 12 points.

Grandmaster Arthur Bisguier was once again the hit of the tournament, playing over 75 participants in a Friday night simultaneous and analyzing games and giving lectures to the young students throughout the tournament. The tournament was sponsored by the Cumberland County Chess Club and the American Chess Foundation and directed by Harry Sabine, Chief TD and a host of other volunteer workers.

7th FAIRFIELD GLADE OPEN

For the first time in history there was a five-way tie for first place with Dennis Gogel of New Albany, Indiana, Curt Jones and Ronald Burnett of Nashville, Jeff Ginsburg of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Rob Bostrom of Lexington, Kentucky, all scoring 4-1 to become co-champions. After combining first, second, and third place money and the top two prizes in the Candidate Master Section, each player took home $220 for his efforts with Dennis Gogel claiming the trophy on the tie-break.

Tying for third place in the Master Division were Brian McCarthy of Hermitage and David Vest of Washington, D.C., each with 3½-1½ scores. Chris Chambers of Concord and Ron Pasik of Jeffersonville, Indiana, tied for first place in Category I, with each taking home $150. Ron Easter of Knoxville, Roy Farr of Hermitage and John Jackson of Chattanooga, tied for third place in the category.

Jimmy Watson of Corpus Christi, Texas, and Walter Alexander of Lexington, Kentucky, tied for first in the Amateur Section with a score of 4½-½, while Frank Egulf of Clarksville took third place outright with a score of 4-1. Benal Owens of Atlanta, Georgia, won first place in Category III taking home $150 and a trophy for his efforts. Second place in Category III was won by Jack Smith of Fayette, Alabama, with a score of 3-2. Tied for third in the category were Fred Dowell of Lexington, Kentucky, Jason Coleman of Cordova, and William Organ of Dickson.

In the Novice Section, George Graham of Crossville, was the sole finisher in first place with a score of 4½-½, taking home $100 and a trophy. There was a four-way tie for second with Larry Bryant of Clarksville, Page Tumimello of Memphis, Steven Knupp of Johnson City, and Paul Gray of Ringgold, Georgia, each having a score of 4-1. Ed White of Crossville, took top honors in Category V and Matt Burdick of Cookeville, captured first in Category VI. The Unrated Category was shared by George Allard and Joe Alexander of Lexington, Kentucky, and Kenneth Keck of Crossville, each with a score of 3-2.

TENNESSEE POSTAL CHES

With Kent Meadows

Gary G'Fellers, Morris Lewis, Lee Edwards, Ellis Eugene Jones, Bill Irwin, and Lewis Inman have qualified for TC-F&E. These postal mighties have bravely hacked and hewed their way where no mortal man has ever gone before. Don't you want to be a genius-hero like these brave lads? If so, enter TC-I-84 by sending $6.00 ($4.00 more if not a TCA member) to:

Kent Meadows
206 30th Ave. N.
Nashville, TN 37203

You play six games with three other players—two games versus each (one with each colour). All entries are returned as prizes in the finals. You qualify for the finals by scoring four points or better in your six games. Entry in more than one section is permitted for exceptionally bold adventurers.

Results:
TC-3-82: Penuel ½ Irwin
TC-4-83: Burnett 1 Penuel

Entries:
TC-I-84: James Finley

Don't forget to report to me any of your opponents who aren't sending you any moves. I enjoy forfeiting people who are rude to their opponents. I also enjoy forfeiting people because I get to wield power! Don't you wish you were postal director?
