A NEW EDITOR TRIES HIS HAND...

Welcome everyone to another chapter in the TCA newsletter. My name is Wally Jordan and as some of you may already know, I've volunteered to sit in the editor's chair and try to take TCN in some new directions. Before I go any further I want to take the opportunity to thank all of my predecessors for their efforts as already I understand the monstrous amount of work involved in producing a newsletter worthy of the states association. I'd also like to thank Peter Lahde, Leonard Dickerson, Ed Newkirk and everyone else that has submitted material for consideration. I suppose I should tell you that this is the first time I've ever done this type of work but having grown up in middle Tennessee I've always had a strong bond with chess in the state and have had the opportunity to witness much of our history first hand. At any rate, I've always looked forward to receiving my copy of TCN over the years and also thought it should reflect the pride in which we hold our royal game. I can only promise you that I have a strong desire to improve our magazine and I encourage all of you to submit your ideas, material, etc. for improving our newsletter.

A History of Tennessee Chess

A book by the above title is available from the author commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Tennessee Open Chess Tournament. Some of the highlights of the book include (1) Five games by Capablanca not previously published except in a chess column at the time; (2) Selected games of the Western Chess Open of 1913 won by Prof. James McClure; (3) An account of every Tennessee Open with many games; (4) Scholastic chess in Tennessee; (5) Tennesseans vs GM's and more. In all it has over 340 games. Ken Smith of Chess Digest called it "An excellent job of research". The book is available from the author, Peter Lahde, 2609 Sailboat Court, Nashville, Tn 37217. The cost is $10 plus $2 for shipping and handling. All proceeds go to benefit Tennessee scholastic chess. The book will also be sold at several tournaments in Tennessee.

TENNESSEE CHESS NEWS is the official publication of the Tn Chess Association. TCA dues are $10 for a regular membership, $4 for a student membership. Additonal members of a family may join for $1 each, but only one issue of TCN will be mailed per family. All memberships expire August 31st.. TCA membership is required for participation in all rated events in Tennessee except scholastic only events, and may be purchased at any chess tournament in Tennessee.

50th Tennessee Open Sets Record

A record setting attendance of 162 players over Labor Day weekend saw Peter Bereolos of Knoxville capture the title of 1996 state champion with a perfect 5-0. A last round victory over Gm Sam Palatnik of Nashville where Sam's time ran out with 1 move to go provided an exciting finish. Congratulations to Peter on a great result. An excellent result was posted by Matthew Puckett of Alabama who scored 4.5 points to take second place. (Matthew had drawn with Gm Palatnik in an earlier round). Former state champion Juan Aristorenas put in a solid 4 points to follow in third but he chose to take top expert money and title. A lot of interesting games were played in this years open and I've included several along with games from the other sections elsewhere in this issue.

An interesting result occurred in the amateur section as both 1st and 2nd place finishers lost on Friday night and re-entered. The amateur was won by James N.Hughes of Charleston, Tn. with 5-0 followed by Saly Monivong from Antioch,Tn. with 4-1. The novice section was won by David Berry of Oak Ridge with a 5-0 score. Chris Mironescu of Nashville won the class E title. Winners in the scholastic were M.C. Deck of Crossville in the High school, Sisir Botta of Nashville in the junior high, Jeffrey Harris in the elementary and a 3 way tie in the primary between Paul Fuchs of Nashville, Michael Schoumacher of Memphis & Blake McCuiston of Murray, Ky.

The event saw 8 states represented: Tn, Ky, Arizona, Mo., Al., Ga.,Tx., & New York !!

The event was directed by Harry Sabine and assisted by James and Nancy Hughes and Peter Lahde. I'd like to thank Peter Lahde for his excellent book on the history of the Tennessee Open which was provided free of charge to all participants in the tournament and to anyone else for a $10 donation to scholastic chess. Thanks for autographing my copy Pete!

I'd like to join everyone in thanking Peter Lahde for his many years of service to chess in Tennessee. Peter retired at the end of this tournament to enjoy chess full time!!

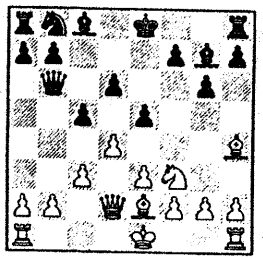
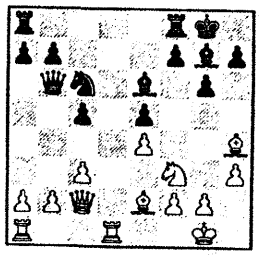
Best Game Prize (1st place)

Watson, Brad — Pullen, Dewitt
50th Tennessee Open, 1996

1.d4 Nf6 2.Nf3 g6 3.Bg5 Ne4 4.Bh4 Bg7 5.e3 c5 6.Nbd2 Nxd2 7.Qxd2 Qb6 8.c3 d6 9.Be2 e5?!

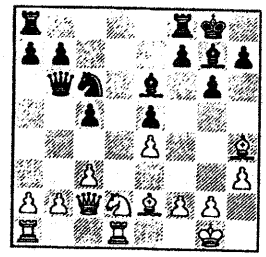


10.dxe5 dxe5 11.Qc2 0-0 12.0-0 Nc6 13.Rfd1 Bf5? 14.e4 Bg4?! 15.h3 Be6



Black is having difficulty deciding where to put this bishop, and the result is that White has played both e3-e4 and h2-h3 with gain of tempo.

16.Nd2!

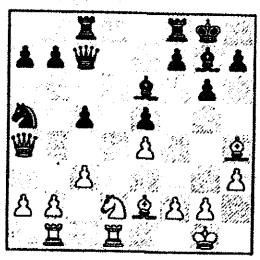


Preparing to exchange white-squared bishops with Bc4, after which the outpost square d5 falls into White's hands.

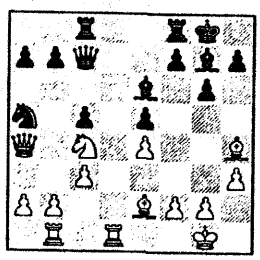
16...Na5

Fighting for control of c4.

17.Qa4 Rac8 18.Rab1 Qc7



19.Nc4!



The exchanges that occur after this move greatly favor White because he will control not only the d5square but the entire d-file.

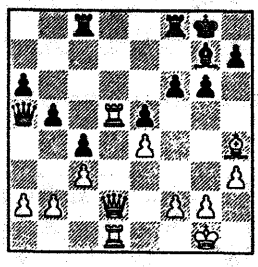
19...Nxc4 20.Bxc4 Bxc4 21.Qxc4

Now the weakness of the d5-square, together with Black's inability to contest the d-file, gives White a large advantage.

21...a6

Black has big problems: he can't oppose rooks on the d-file because of White's Bh4, and he can't block the bishop with ...f7-f6 because the f-pawn is pinned! Thus he first tries to drive White's queen from c4 with ...b7-b5. Meanwhile White will triple heavy pieces on the d-file.

22.Rd5 b5 23.Qd3 c4 24.Qd2 f6 25.Rd1 Qa5



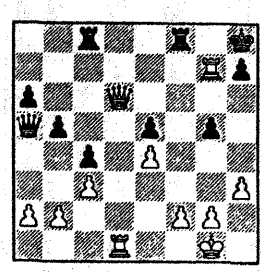
26.Rd7

The invasion down the d-file begins. White threatens to win (after 26...Qxa2, for example) with 27.Qd5+ Kh8 28.Qb7 Rg8 29.Bxf6!. This variation explains Black's next two moves.

26...Kh8 27.Qd6

Intending 28.Qe7 with unstoppable threats.

27...g5 28.Bxg5! fxg5 29.Rxg7!



Now Black gets mated. White's sacrifices are both logical and sound.

29...Kxg7

Not 29...Rcd8 (apparently skewering White's undefended Rd1) because White can win with either 30.Qxe5 or 30.Qh6. Notice how useful the "free move" h2-h3 is for white here.

30.Qxe5+ Kg8

Black also gets mated after 30...Rf6 31.Rd7+ Kg6 32.Qe7! (threat Qxh7 mate) g4 (32...Rh8 33.g4!) 33.Qg7+ Kh5 34.Rd5+ Kh4 35.Qxg4 mate.

31.Qxg5+ Kh8

After 31...Kf7 the conclusion would be 32.Rd7+ Ke6 33.Qe7 mate.

32.Rd7 Rg8 33.Qf6+ 1-0

Best Game Prize (2nd place)

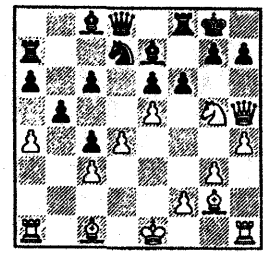
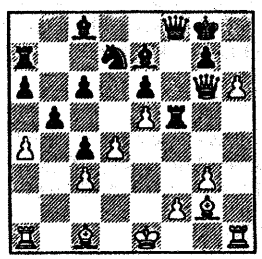
9.Ng5 Be7 10.Ne4 0-0 11.g3 a6 12.Bg2 Ra7 13.h4 Nd7 14.Qh5 f6 15.Ng5!

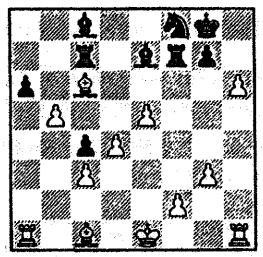


White is going to get a lot of pawns for this knight!

15...fxg5 16.hxg5 h6 17.gxh6 Rf5 18.Qg6 Qf8



19.Qxe6+ Qf7 20.Qxf7+! Rxf7 21.Bxc6! Nf8 22.axb5 Rc7

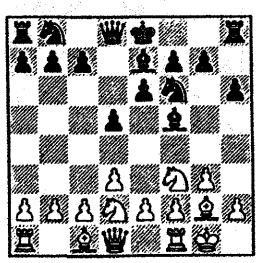


With his pawn structure devastated and his pieces uncoordinated, Black can't prevent further material losses.

23.Bd5 gxh6 24.b6 Rd7 25.Bxc4 Bb7 26.Rxh6 Bd5 27.b7 Bxb7 28.e6 1-0

Downs, C. — Wheeler, J.
50th Tennessee Open, 1996

1.Nf3 Nf6 2.g3 d5 3.Bg2 Bf5 4.0-0 e6 5.d3 h6 6.Nbd2 Be7



7.Qe1 0-0 8.e4 Bh7 9.Qe2 c5 10.h4 Nc6 11.c3?

This "normal" move isn't good when Black plays ...Bf5 because it weakens the d3-square.

11...Rc8 12.Re1 a6 13.Nh2 b5 14.Ng4 Nxg4 15.Qxg4 Ne5 16.Qe2 dxe4 17.dxe4 Nd3 18.Rd1 c4

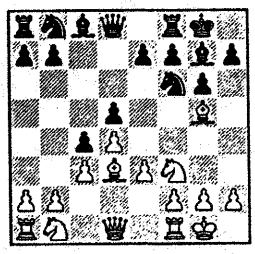
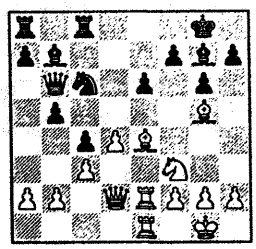
1.d4 Nf6 2.Nf3 g6 3.Bg5 Bg7 4.e3 c5 5.c3 0-0 6.Bd3 d5 7.0-0 c4?



It's almost always wrong to release the tension in the center like this. Now White's center is secure, and he can prepare e3-e4 with a kingside attack to follow.

8.Bc2 Nc6 9.Nbd2 b5 10.e4 dxe4 11.Nxe4 Nxe4 12.Bxe4 Bb7 13.Re1 Re8 14.Qd2 Qb6 15.Re2 e6 16.Rae1 Rec8



White has carried out his ideal kingside buildup, and now starts a full-scale assault by transferring his queen to the kingside.

17.Qf4 Qc7 18.Qh4 a5 19.Bf4

Clearing the way for Ng5. Black is in big trouble.

19...Qd8

Of course Black would like to trade queens.

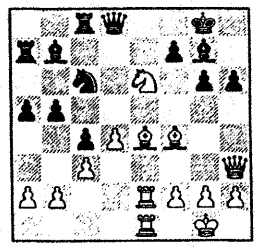
20.Qh3!

White naturally avoids a queen swap. Bad instead would be 20.Ng5? h6.

20...Ra7

Trying to bring the rook into the game along the 7th rank. It's tough for Black to improve his position.

21.Ng5 h6 22.Nxe6!



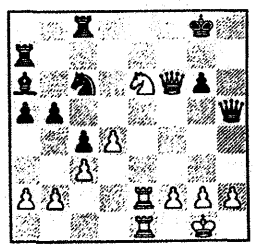
22...Qd7

White wins after 22...fxe6 23.Qxe6+ Kh8 24.Qxg6 Qg8 25.Bxh6 with four pawns and the initiative for the piece.

23.Bxg6!

Blasting open the kingside.

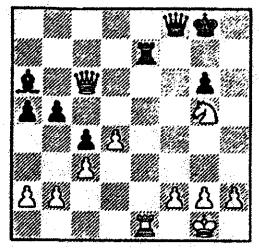
23...fxg6 24.Bxh6 Bxh6 25.Qxh6 Qh7 26.Qg5 Qh5 27.Qf6 Ba6



28.Ng5

Stronger is 28.Nf4!

28...Rf8 29.Re8 Qh6 30.Rxf8+ Qxf8 31.Qxc6 Re7



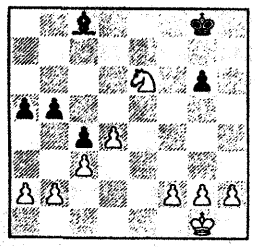
32.Rxe7?

Immediately conclusive is 32.Qxg6+ Qg7 33.Qxg7+ Kxg7 (33...Rxg7? 34.Re8 mate!) 34.Rxe7+ Kf6 35.Re6+ Kxg5 36.Rxa6.

32...Qxe7 33.Qe6+?

And again 33.Qxg6+ is stronger: 33...Qg7 34.Qe8+ Qf8 35.Qe6+ Kg7 36.Qxa6.

33...Qxe6 34.Nxe6 Bc8



35.Nc5 Kf7 36.g3 Bh3 37.f3 Bf5 38.Ne4 Bc8? 39.Nd6+ Ke6 40.Nxc8 Kd7 41.Na7 b4 42.cxb4 axb4 43.Kf2 c3 44.bxc3 bxc3 45.Ke2 1-0

1996 CUMBERLAND COUNTY FALL OPEN CHESS TOURNAMENT

Peter Bereolos is on a roll! The Knoxville player followed up on his win at the Tennessee Open by winning the 47-player Cumberland County Fall Open held at Fairfield Glade on October 12th. TCA Treasurer Leonard Dickerson won the Expert prize, Layne Shaw took home the Class A money, and James N. Hughes captured Class B.

In the hard fought Amateur Section Bill Harvill of Crossville scored 4-0 to win $50.00 and first place. Lee Stensaker of Knoxville and Jason Knight of Oak Ridge tied for second with 3.5 points. The 1000-1199 prize was split three ways between David Holmes of Elizabethton, Yunfu Sun of Oak Ridge, and Scott Cantrell of Riceville. Also in a three-way split was the below 1000 prize with Chad Stair of Corryton, John Kramer, III of Knoxville, and Shannon Shaw of Crossville sharing the prize. Brett Farris of Crossville took home the unrated prize money of $25.00

Is it time for a father-son tournament in Tennessee? No less than four father-son combinations played in the tournament — Layne and Shannon Shaw, Mack and Jason Knight, Yunfu and Lu Sun, and James M. and James N. Hughes. The tournament was directed by Harry Sabine and Ron Harvill and sponsored by the Cumberland County Chess Club.

25th Annual Cumberland County Chess Championship

Submitted By: Jason Knight

Martin Elementary School and the Cumberland County Chess Club were the hosts of the 25th annual Cumberland County Chess Championship Saturday, September 14th, 1996. A total of thirty-six participants competed for the title of Cumberland County Champion. The majority of the participants this year were scholastic players, for many of these players it was their first tournament.

I would like to thank Martin Elementary School and Ms. Nancy Weaver for providing the site for the tournament and the Cumberland County Bank for providing the plaques awarded to the winners. The Bank also has a plaque with the names of the 1st place winners engraved on it. You are encouraged to go by and see it when you can. I'd like to also thank Mr. Harry Sabine for inviting me to be Chief TD again this year.

Congratulations to all who played and to those who received awards.

Battle 3: Knoxville 9.5—Chattanooga 2.5

Knoxville wreaked revenge on Chattanooga, October 5, 1996, by defeating the 6-player Chattanooga team, winning 9.5 out of the 12 games played. This reversed last years fortune where Chattanooga trounced Knoxville with a score of 9.5 to 6.5. The match was again held in Cleveland, TN so that the Knoxvillians would not have to travel as far. The disparity in travel was made up, however, by the hospitality of the Chattanooga Chess Club which provided a spacious, well-lit playing area, snacks, and lunch.

In fact, our hosts were so accommodating that their kindness became suspect! Nancy Hughes offered to get coffee for the road-weary Knoxvillians. Half of the players took advantage of the offer. After the first round started, the coffee arrived. While concentrating on his move, our 6th board, Haresh Mirani, was unconscious to the fact that a blackjacked bumblebee had landed on his coffee cup. Jim Hughes, Chattanooga's 5th board, witnessed the event but did not alert Haresh to the potential disaster. Anyway, before Haresh could reach for the coffee, the bee climbed to the rim of the cup. The rising vapors from the cup overpowered the bee and knocked it unconscious, causing the bee to tumble inside the scalding coffee! This leads us to wonder what wicked brew was actually in the cup that could overcome a poison-totting blackjack!

Well, we have to assume that everything was honorable since all the coffee drinkers survived their chess games in style! In fact, all the chess games were competitive as usual, since it is customary for the much higher-rated Knoxville team to be discomfited by the competitiveness of the Chattanooga team. Team members were:

Knoxville		Chattanooga
Leonard Dickerson	2176	Michael Spencer	1978
Emanuel Tsitseklis	2000	Mike Gee	1900
Jack Trayers	1958	Linneman	1915
Hosea Velaquez	1792	Robert Presswood	1790
Jon Murray	1626	Jim Hughes	1708
Haresh Mirani	1674	Jim Kade	1500

All the Knoxville team members scored at least one victory. As an example of the competitiveness of the match, I offer a wild game that I endured. The tactical is initiated by Michael Spencer, who with his unusual second move, leaves no doubt that he has come to play!

1.d4 Nf6 2.Nf3 b5 A reverse Polish? Black found me ignorant of this opening in the previous round and so decided to give me another dose! 3.Bg5!? Ne4?! 4.Bh4 Bb7 5.Nbd2 c5?! 6.Nxe4 Bxe4 7.dxc5 I figure that with my Bishop at h4 restraining the e–pawn and Black trying to regain the pawn on c5, I will get good complications while maintaining a lead in development. I knew I could not hold the pawn, but I saw that Black would have to go through contortions to regain it. Na6 8.Nd2 Bb7 9.Nb3 Rc8 10.Qd4 Even Qd3 is promising. f6 If 10...Qc7 11 e4 Nxc5 12 Nxc5 Qxc5 13 Qxc5 Rxc5 15 Bd3 and White has good prospects. 11.f4!? I realized that this could be weakening. I figure that Black will be more exposed than White since he cannot readily castle. Besides he still must decide whether his b–pawn will remain invulnerable. e6 12.e4 Nxc5 13.e5!? Now Be2 (threatening Bh5+) is probably safer. Nxb3 14.axb3 To prevent the Black queen checking at a4 and escaping the pressure on the h4–d8 diagonal. Bc5 Actually 14...Rxc2 15 exf6 with threats of fxg and f7+ does not appear to be bad since Black has either 15...Kf7 or Qb6 as a counter. 15.Qd2 a6 16.exf6 gxf6 17.0–0–0 Anywhere beats being in the middle of the board where the pieces are swarming. Bd5 To block the d–file and, incidentally, threaten Bxb3. 18.Kb1 0–0 19.Bd3 Qb6 20.f5! Be3 21.Qe2 Now I feel a little safer because this move holds up Black's queenside pawn break and repositions my queen for kingside play. e5 22.Rhe1 Wisely declining catastrophe by avoiding the "brilliant" 22 Bxb5, when 22....Bxb3 denudes the White castled position and reduces White's chances to draw. Bd4 If Bh6, either g4 or even Be4 seems good. 23.g4 Beginning a combination to lure the King to the 7th rank whereupon a check will occur if the d–pawn is captured. h6 23...Qc6 is probably stronger. 24.Qd2 Kg7 25.c3 Bxb3 This move is just about forced. If 25...Bc5 26 Bc2 Bc6 27 Be4, leaves no doubt of whose attack will come first. 26.cxd4 Bxd1 This is the move that I had calculated and based the remainder of my combination on. Post analysis revealed the shocking 26...b4!?!–with the threat of 27...Qa5–could have wrung tears from my eyes! The problem with calculating sacrificial lines is that you rarely consider your opponent's counter sacrifices! Had this counter–sac occurred, though, I may have seen 27 Rc1 Qa5 28 Rc5! which blocks off the c–file and keeps the advantage. 27.dxe5 I felt that this was much stronger than Qxd1 because Black is denied connected passers and my attack continues unabated. Besides, I was sure that I would get at least the exchange in return. Bb3 28.exf6+ Rxf6 Practically forced. If 28...Kh7 29 g5 is good. 29.g5 Again an opportunity to be nonmaterialistic! Well, actually I saw that his king's exposure was worth much more than the exchange. Rd6 If 29...hxg5 30 Qxg5+ Kf7 31 Rg1 wins. 30.f6+ Kf8 If 30...Kg8, not 31 g6? Rxd3!! and Black turns the table! But the simple gxh leaves Black defenseless against the Queen check on the g–file. 31.g6 Rxf6 32.Qxh6+ Kg8 33.Qh7+ TIME. This was an exciting game throughout. It represents the type of battles that are typical of the Chattanooga – Knoxville clashes which often see the highly rated Knoxvillians getting upset. Chattanooga does not go down meekly.

1996-1997 TENNESSEE TURKEY TOUR

The Fourteenth Annual Tennessee Turkey Tour is a year long contest to help promote high standards in Tennessee chess participation and competition. The Tour begins after the 1996 (50th) Tennessee Open and terminates with the 1997 (51st) Tennessee Open. The Tennessee Open is the last Turkey Tour event of each year.

To qualify as a Tennessee Turkey Tour Event, a tournament must meet the following requirements:

(1) Be an USCF regular-rated event.

(2) Require TCA membership of each player who is a Tennessee resident. Collect and remit TCA dues of each non-member. No other dues shall be required except USCF dues.

(3) Be a weekend open event held in Tennessee with at least three rounds.

(4) Be cleared thru the TCA Tournament Coordinator and printed in the TCN tournament calendar. Only one event will be approved for each weekend.

(5) Request a tournament crosstable(s) from the USCF on the Official Tournament Report and submit a copy of the crosstable(s) to the Tournament Coordinator within one week of receipt from the USCF.

(6) Remit the appropriate Turkey Tour fee to the TCA Treasurer within one week of the end of the event.

1. PRIZE FUND:

The prize fund consists of tournament round fees (USCF Grand Prix events - $5.00 per round; others - $3.00 per round) and other donations. Prizes will be awarded as a total fund percentage to top players of an USCF rating class as follows:

Master/Expert, Class A	- 1st -	9%
	2nd -	6%
	3rd -	3%
Class B, C, D, & E	- 1st -	8%
	2nd -	5%
	3rd -	3%

2. CONDITIONS OF AWARDING PRIZES:

(1) The Tournament Coordinator is responsible for compiling players "Turkey Points" and awarding prizes.

(2) Turkey Points begin at zero for each player on each Turkey Tour.

(3) Only TCA members may accumulate Turkey Points and collect a prize. A player will be awarded the greatest earned prize for which he is eligible.

(4) Only players with established USCF regular ratings will be eligible for a prize; however, a player will accumulate Turkey Points while provisionally rated which will be credited in the player's rating class when the player's rating is reported as established by the USCF crosstable in a Turkey Tour Event.

(5) For a given event, a player's Turkey Points will be credited in the rating class as determined by the player's PRE-tournament rating shown on the USCF official crosstable for the event. However, to encourage advancing players, Turkey Points earned in a lower rating class will be credited in a higher rating class for a player who moves up. Turkey Points earned in a lower rating class also remain in the lower class for prize eligibility in that class. This method is utilized for the duration of the tour unless a player moves to a lower class. In such a case, Turkey Points earned in the higher rating class are not counted for the lower rating class standing, and Turkey Points earned in the lower rating class will not be carried forward if the player moves again into a higher rating class.

3. TURKEY POINTS:

TCA members may earn Turkey Points for tournament participation and performance as follows:

(1) Participation: A player receives thirty (30) Turkey Points for participating in the Tennessee Open, twenty (20) Turkey Points for participating in an USCF Grand Prix Turkey Tour Event, and ten (10) Turkey Points for participating in any other Turkey Tour Event. A player must complete at least half of the scheduled rounds in the event to earn Participation Turkey Points.

(2) Performance: Additional Turkey Points will be awarded to each player with a positive performance result in a Turkey Tour Event. Performance Turkey Points = (Wins minus losses) times (number of rounds in the event). Unplayed games except for Byes or forfeit wins will be counted as losses. A player must complete the event to earn Performance Turkey Points.
