ANNOUNCING THE BIGGEST TENNESSEE OPEN YET

Why not make this the biggest and best Tennessee Open we have ever had. Many new features and attractions should make this event even more inviting than in the past. Make this headline come true.

As last year the event will take place at the beautiful Albert Pick Motel on 322 Murfreesboro Rd., Nashville, Tenn. Here every room has T.V. and is Air Conditioned. The metel also has a fine pool for its guests.

The prize fund should easily reach (250 if not (300 this year. Some of the additional prizes this year will be trophies for class winners. There will be trophics for Class A in the Open (rating up to 1900), and in the Amateur for Class B and C. Other trophy winners will be for Open, State, and Junior Champion in the Open Division, and the Amateur Champion in the Amateur Division; I night add that the trophics are much more bedutiful this year. But no player will receive more than one trophy. This will be and increase in trophics awarded from three to seven,

Additional prizes will be in the form of free entries for the best score achieved by a postal player in TCA to date and for the best score achieved by a Class B player or lower to play in the Amateur Division. Other money prizes for first, second, third, etc. to be announced later, but be about the same.

Entry fees will be the same as last year, still only $7 in the Open and $5 in the Armtour. In addition USCF and TCA membership is required.

Some of the items that should be of special interest are summarized in this paragraph. A special tournament committee (that will not include any of the top contenders) will be formed that will take that task and responsibility. - To permit anyone who so desires to attend church Sunday morning, there will be no tourney play at that time (except for a speed tourney). Students without accompanying parent(s) are invited to write at least three weeks in advance for free accomedations. Write to the Arrangements Committee Chairman: Tony Estos, 4100 Kennody Ave. Nashville, Tonn. If we can help in any other way please let us know.

In addition this year's neet also has some other rajor significance. A new Constitution, more in line with the growth of TCA will be presented for adaption.

Also additional officers will be elected.

We gave you enough reason now why you should attend this year's event, and there are many more too numerous to mention them all. But may we suggest a little promotion by the respective club officers. Let's try to have every club in Tonn. represented. The injer clubs such as Knoxville, Mouphis, Murfreesbore, and Oak Ridge should have five or more. Nashville will have at least twelve. Let's have at least one each from AEDC, Chattanooga, Dayton, Dyersburg, Kingsport & Maryville.

So we see you all then Labor Day weekend, September 4-6. Detailed announcemonts of all the particulars will reach you shortly.

TENNESSEE CHESS IS LOOKING GOOD

This is the way John Hurt, President of TCA, started a letter just recently to the editor. He noted that the top 15 players in Tennessee averaged 1974 USCF rating points, almost expert class.

TCA mombership stands at 101 mombers, including 18 from out of state, and 4 non-paying in the same family. Tennossee has 63 USCF members. Here is a list of the major cities contributing to the total membership:

City	TCA	USCF
Monphis	22	21
Nashville	20	14
Knoxville	11	8
Oak Ridge	ii	6
Murfroosboro	6	6

PROPOSED NEW CONSTITUTION OF TOA

A new Constitution for TCh was written by Miko Coveyou, Secretary of TCh, as he was instructed at the last TCA business meeting in September 1964. This proposod Constitution is found on pages 8 and 9 of this issue. He has expanded much time and care in writing it. He is to be congratulated for his efforts.

But in all probability it will not be adopted entirely as he has outlined it. Therefore anyone who sees any need for changes or improvements is invited to send those directly to Mike Coveyou, 104 Stanton Lane, Oak Ridge, Tenn. 37830. Please hurry though as it will be presented for adoption at the business moeting over the

MURFREESBORO CLUB TOURNEY COMPLETED

The six round Swiss system club tourney as previously reported was won by Jim Price with 5 points, drawing only with Roy Clark (see games section for game). But second place was yet undecided; four players tied here with four points, they words Clark, Norton, Freedlo, and Brown. Four players tied also with 3 points for the Junior title. They were: Stein, Buckmaster, Corlow, and Prahl. In all 10 players participated. The results follows-

Pote Lahdo and Tony Estes, both of Nashville had 22 points each, for 9th and 1th place respectively. There were 14 players in the Opon. Twenty-two players participated in the Ameteur. Frank Garner of Memphis was to play in the Amhtour but had to return home as his stepfather became ill. We extend our sincore sympathy herewith.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Richard Long has just about completed his thesis at Vanderbilt and will be loaving Nashville this month. He has accepted a position at the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta. The Nashville Chess Club will miss him.

Robert and Mike Coveyou are playing in the Western Open over the 4th of July weekend in St. Louis. Bob won his first and Mike was pitted against Grandmaster Lombardy. Ho lost a King's Indian with White in 44 moves. Tourney has 125 players.

this year, USCF rated, with five entries. Net surprisingly, John Hutton scored $\frac{3\frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2}}{2}$ to take first place, followed closely by Mike Coveyou at $\frac{3}{2}-1$. Hutton came very close to breaking the mastery Mike Coveyou has had ever him in USCF rated games. One thing is sure; these two don't play dull games! (See game annotated in the games section). Mike actually blow a tic for first place in the first round by drawing with Akers in the first round, by mishandling a winning attack

(with Black in a Caro-Kamn!). The performance of LaVerne was encouraging, although his way to Class A.

MOVES VERSUS POSITIONS By Emanuel Tsitseklis

The game below sent to me by my good friend Richard Long marks the only blemish of an otherwise impeccable record which he achieved in Birmingham, It illustrates, for all those in particular, who "unluckily" appear rather consistently to escape the better chance, how moves can deteriorate existing positional advantages.

(a) Flaying his moves in a fast tempo supposedly, White has already "jumped" a move and torn one of the opening's buttons. The intermediary move was 3. Fxr, NxF; 4. F-KN3 whon Black's selection could be between the positionals F-KN3 or F-QB3 and the slightly nothballed N-QB5, or the more speculative NxF; . NPxn, I-knj.

(b) 4. N-QN5, in view of adverse circumstances, gives White a more diversified policy which coupled with N-KB3 can challenge F-Q4.

(c) How indiscreet! 4...I-K4; 5. I-Q3, B-KB4; 6. B-KN2, N-B3! 7. N-B3 P-KR3 offers Black almost a positional domination. White is now given a chance to catch up.

(d) Because of his good load in development, ...I-K5; 8. N-K1 (or 8. N-K5, B-QB4; 9. I-Q3, Q-K2, is also superior),...B-B4 9. I-Q3, QN-Q2 etc., should have won the first great battle, the battle of the opening.

(e) In view of his carlier mishap, up to this stage, White has only succeeded in the control of point K4. Positionally enviable, Black poses however, no direct throats, for if he now played the offensive F-K57; 10, N-N5!, FxP 11 LxB, FxB; 12. Pxi, or ...i-K6; 11. N-K4! with White's advantage! Dut Black's position is so solidly covered that any further strengthening is purely futile. Instead, 19...N-K1 followed by P-KB4 for a timely contesting of point K5 seems best.

(f) White has two better alternatives at his disposal here: (1) 11. Q-E2, Q-K2; 12. B-KN5; with protty sharp play, or (2) 11. N-N5, ExB 12. KxB, F-KR3; 13. N-B3, although more constricted would have at least climinated the potent QB3.

(g) 11...B-R5!, as one of those often-to-escape subtleties, would have given Llack, once again, a leading game. For example, 12. Q-Kl, R-Kl 13. N-N5 f-R3 14. N-K4, NxN 15. ExN, ExN 16. FxE, N-QE4!

(h) Otherwise, if 12...F-R5?!, 13. N-R5, ExN 14. ExE with annoying divergences to

(1) Directly 16... N-D4: would have collapsed White's last turret of defence, K4, while 16. P-K4! would have reduced Dlack's Knight to passivity and still retaining the pair of Lishops, i.e. 16... PxP e.p. 17. ExP F-K5 18. FxF NxF 19. N-B2 with a sound defence.

j) Also effective was 19...N-K4! 20. Q-Q2, P-Q6!

(k) The capture of this important Pawn is the closest Richard got to a win. Similar conment also applies to the next note (1).

(1) Insignificant! Dut after 21...Q-K5! 22 N-D4 P-Q6 (22. N-K1, N-K5 23. P-B3 P-Q6 ch; 24. K-Rl, Q-D4!) appears to win.

(n) Now best for White seemed 23. R-Kl, forcing the exchange of Rocks and a prompt threat to Q4, 23...RxR 24. QxR (of course not now ... Q-Q1; 25. Q-N4!) ... QxQ; 25. RxQ, K-Bl 26. R-K4 with a close game! Black should have tried more for material advantage, i.e. 23...RxP 24. QxP, RxP, etc. If now 23...N-B3 24 P-B3 P-K3; 25 G-Q2 R-R3 26 K-B2 R-K3 27 N-B4 with a very close position.

(n) With Black's tame play and lack of ingenuity, the balance of power now seems to equal zero, and further contestation becomes a dull necessity mostly because of simplicity of position, or so it seems....

(o) 28...N-G2 looks more flexible for control of squares, mneuvering and for a better position. (Continued on next page)

(a) This move cost Capablanca his only(!) tournament loss to Alekhine (AVRO, 1938). Lesser mortals beware! 3...P-QB4 probably equalizes; and 3...N-QB3 may be bost (and may not!).

The only, but good, way to preserve the center.

(c) Mike's score has a ? hore, but the books and his father think this is bestand good.

(d) Herewitz gives 12. N-B5 0-0 15. B-K3 here and claims an edge for White. On 13...QXNP 14. N-QN5 B-K2 15. R-QN1 QxRP 16. R-R1 Q-N7 17. R-Q4, threatening 18. B-QB1 soons to be the tactical justification. The text move (12. R-K1) is weak, since the K-file is not important. We will soon see that the R was botter before then after 12. R-K1.

(o) This is completely lost time; the game now takes a turn which has nothing to do with the Queen side.

(f) White has a difficult choice here; the best choice is probably N(K2)-Q4. With this exchange his King-side seems to be getting dangerously exposed.

g) An unsuccessful suicide attempt. (h) Of course! 17. KxB loses at least the Queen, and 17. K-Bl, N-N5 is equally murderous.

(i) At least stopping the deadly ...Q-R5.

(j) White has a lost game, but has not yet lost his head; the position is getting complicated, and his opponent is in time trouble.

(k) A safety play; to allow the QR to defend the back rank.

(1) Ingenicus, unsound, and - successful. But there is nothing better.

(n) Here Black had a clear win with 22...R-B7.

(n) Black can still escape, but wisely decides not to try; he has only 5 minutes for 19 moves. There are interesting complications all through the game which I do not explore, since Black left himself no chance to exploit them because of the state of his clock.

(p) 32. P-QB4! followed by R-QB1 - R-QB4 coupled with the new weakened P-R4 would have caused decentralization of Black's double-Rock Power Attack by new defensive assignments, i.e. 32...K-B1 33. R-QB1 R-R1 34 R-QB4 R-QB4 35 R-K2, etc. with a better ending for White in terms of position.

(q) Richard questions this move, yet actually Black could easily have achieved a better timing by 38...R-QB4, thus having White connect with 39. A-N4 (Not 39. TXP PxP, when Black is again in the driver's seat)39...P-QN4 40. PxP PxP with additional endgame advantage.

(r) There is no "go" to this pawn. What was wrong with 41...K-K2 42. K-Q4 K-Q3? h Closing Word: Despite his positional advantage all through the game, Black's lack of onergetic initiative never seemed to place his oppotunities within winning range (see suggestion e), this being due partly to the immobility of his formations. White failed several times in trying to free his game, the only shadow of an offensive being 11. B-Q2? and 14. R-Bl to which ... B-QR4? was Black's misjudgment. Finally, the self-confidence of winning the tournament coupled with hope in the opposition's continuous mistakes, proved detrimental in Black's attitude toward the present game, and it could well be one of Richard's most indifferent games.
