MEMPHIS HOST TO SOUTHERN.

Memphis will be the host to the Southern Championships this year thanks to their hard work in winning the bid over Macan, Ga. Not since 1955 has the Southern been held in Tennessee when it was in Chattanooga.

We can all be very proud for Memphis to have achieved this honor. Well over $200 have or will have to be raised by Memphis to comply with the financial support as is expected of the host city. The best we can do is show our appreciation by each one of us making a special effort to attend this event. Actually we are committed as the host state to have at least ten players, aside from at least that number from the host city itself.

Aside from this the Southern tournament this year will salute this year the dear old gentleman Bob Scrivener. As we are all friends of "Uncle Bob" let us attend as a special tribute to him.

There will be special announcements mailed to every club in the state and many individuals. But just in case here are some of the details:

The Southern will be held from June 30 thru July 3 at the Hotel Claridge in downtown Memphis. Hotel rates are $7 single, $9 double, and $10 for twin. There is free parking in the hotel for guests.

The Southern will be divided into three divisions as follows:

Southern Championship: Open to any rating, though experts and masters preferred.

Amateur Championship of SCA: Restricted to those rated 1899 or lower.

Southern Reserve: Restricted to those rated 1599 and lower.

Entry fees are $16 in the Championship ($2 discount if staying at the Claridge) and $10 in the Amateur.

There will be many prizes in the two top divisions. First in the Championship will be $150 in money and prizes and $100 for first in the Amateur.

This event will be in NO way restricted to any person or persons.

Knowing that Tennessee has as strong or better players as any state in the South why not show the rest of the South that we can win in our own state as we did in '55. Let's really show them. Uncle Bob states in one of his letters to the editor as follows: We are (He is speaking for Memphis) depending on Tennessee players to really put its impress on the final scores in this tourney.

Complete information about the tournament can be obtained from Robert Eastwood 304 Krome Ave., Homestead, Fla.

EDENFIELD WINS AEDC TOURNEY.

With a perfect score Emmett Edenfield won the six round, 12 player Championship flight ahead of E. Erickson who placed second with 5 points. Former champ Warren Glover had to be content with third scoring 4:2. The Class B division was won by Walt Anderson with 4½:1½. This event was broken off from the Championship after two rounds. Both tourneys were capably directed by Knox Smithson.

There is currently a match played between Manchester and Tullahoma.

The results of the tournaments were:

Championship Flight

1. Edenfield	6 : 0
2. Erickson	5 : 1
3. Glover	4 : 2

MEMPHIS TOURNEY IN PROGRESS.

From the last report from R.S. Scrivener the Memphis City Tourney has passed the half way mark with J.F. Hurt leading by half a point. The event is an eight player round robin tourney. Trailing Hurt by half a point are Weeks and Wright, Middleton fourth and Gilley fifth. The other participants are: King, Waters and Mitchell.- Here are some the game results: Hurt won from Wright, drew Middleton and Weeks. Weeks won the other game from Hurt, but lost to Wright, and also drawing Gilley and Waters. Wright in addition to winning from Weeks, drew Middleton, but lost to Hurt.

TRAFIMOW TAKES NASHVILLE INVITATIONAL.

Captain Jordan Trafimow emerged victorious in the yet strongest Nashville Invitational with a score of 4:1. The event was held from April 13 thru 15th at the YMCA. He overcame an initial loss to beat out two other players that achieved the same score: Don Du Plantier of Nashville and Lajos Ihasz. Both Trafimow and Ihasz are from Ft. Campbell and are newcomers to USCF. But no doubt the hero of the tourney was Jesse Aydelott, winning over the three strongest players in the tourney yet had to be contend with fourth place with $3\frac{1}{2}:1\frac{1}{2}$.

The most surprising thing was that Black outscored White by the fantastic margin of 30:12. The most popular opening was the Sicilian with 12 and then Caro Kann with nine. Here are the results of the tournament:

NASHVILLE WINS IN MATCH WITH KNOXVILLE.

A very interesting match took place between Knoxville and Nashville on April 8 at the Shanks Hotel in Cookeville. Each team had four players from their city club and three each from the universities, Vanderbilt and University of Tenn. respect.

It was a double round affair that Nashville won by the close margin of 8:6. Actually all the players split their games except on Board from Vandy, where Scott scored twice. In addition to the seven boards each team brought one extra: Mr. Irwin for U.T. and Miss Strother for Vandy. But according to prior agreement these results were not included. Here are the results:

NASHVILLE		KNOXVILLE
1. Lahde	0 1	1. Southern	1 0
2. Sube	1 0	2. Andre	0 1
3. Bowen	1 0	3. Burris	0 1

FT. CAMPBELL VICTORIOUS OVER NASHVILLE.

Somewhat of an upset was the outcome of the match between Nashville and Ft. Campbell as the latter won by a score of $11\frac{1}{2}:8\frac{1}{2}$. The match was again a double round affair on ten boards. It was played on March 11 at the Nashville YMCA.

Nashville was leading in the match at the conclusion of the first round by a score of 6:4. This they were able to extend into the second round with an 8:6 lead when suddenly the roof fell in. A tie ocured with the score knotted $8\frac{1}{2}:8\frac{1}{2}$ and Nashville could not win or even draw another game. The unfortunate thing about it was that of the last four games lost by Nashville, three were definite wins.

Nashville also scored a first that on their team a lady participated. The match might even be considered an inter-club affair as five man from Ft. Campbell are also members of the Nashville club. Here are the individual results:

FT. CAMPBELL		NASHVILLE
1. Trafimow	1 1	1. Long	0 0
2. Sube	0 1	2. Lahde	1 0
3. Trovor	$\frac{1}{2}$ 1	3. Sommer	$\frac{1}{2}$ 0

(a) Not 8...PxP; 9. Bx1ch! loses Queen. The text may be better than N-N5 though.

(c) Black suggested 11. NxP, PxN; 12. BxP after the game. But with 12... B-K3 Black may have a defensible position.

(b) Here 9. C-D3 may be stronger.

(e) Not 31...P-C5?, since then 32. N-K4 wins a Pawn because of 33. N-D6ch.

(d) Threatening 30. N-K4! and 31. N-B6ch.

(f) N-B6 fails on account of 34. C-D4ch

(g) White draws instead with 45. K-B2, K-K4; 46. K-K3, K-C4 47. K-C3 etc.

(a) Most common is here P-K5. Sometimes P-QR3 or B-C2 is played, but least of all the text. But it leads to interesting chess.

(b) Here P-QB4 is also playable and perhaps best according to FCO.

(c) The books only mention here 7. C-K3 and C-C2, so we are on our own now.

(d) Here simply 7...PxP is designed to give White the most trouble.

(e) Overlooking Black's reply. Necessary was 16... KxD or RxD.

(f) An unexpected Zwischenzug. Now the Queen is trapped. The attempt to escape by 17. C-R4 fails by P-N4; 18. NxP, PxN and the Queen is still trapped.

(g) This way he gets an extra Pawn for the Queen in exchange for the Rook.

(h) Not 22. B-R6 to remove the guard on K6 as N-N5 loses the B as mate is threat.

(i) Threatening 25. BxN, QxB; 26. RxR1. The rest is without comment.

(j) Black has too many threats.

GAMES FROM THE FT. CAMBELL-NASHVILLE MATCH.

Without doubt the best game was played by Lamprey on board 5. See also Al Bowen's "revenge" next game.

Annotation is by Peter Lahde

- (a) A somewhat slow version of the Sicilian, but not without poison.
 (b) Black appears to have slightly the better opening.
 (c) At this point Al Bowen also considered 12... P-K3; for if 13. BxR?, Q-N4ch; 14. K-R1, Q-N7 mate. But White does not have to fall for this.
 (d) If now White played 17. DxB?, QxDch and mate next move.
 (e) This move is probably the losing one. But White has to demonstrate this.
 (f) He can win material at once by 19. Q-R6!, if then B-K3; 20. Q-N7 or NxN then
 (g) The beginning of a pretty combination. 20. DxB.
 (h) The lesser evil is QxP losing only a Pawn.
 (i) This came probably as a surprise to Black. The threat is Q-R6 and Q-N7 mate.
 (j) Forced, as otherwise it is mate after 25. Q-R6.
 (k) White plays this part not quite as accurate, but still good enough to win.
 (1) White wins a Rook after 37. Rxich, K-N2; 38. R-R7ch, K-B1 (K-N6; 39. R-R6ch wins Queen) 39. Q-R8ch, K-K2; 40. QxR.

Sicilian Defence

White: Jordan Trafimow

Black: Richard Long

Trafimow outplays Long in this game. But in the second game Long has a won endgame which he misplays and falls into Zugzwang.
